Peachtree News

We welcome home Mrs. W. C. Messer from an Atlanta hospital, Mrs. Lois Rogers and Mr. Bobby Wilson from local hospitals.

Our community face is changing with the spring greenery, flowers, and the neighbors working on their houses. Ronald Hert is getting up his aluminum siding, and the Allen Lovingsoods have just moved into a two bedroom trailer.

Work on the community dumping ground is going forward. Several of the men have been clearing out on the ground that Mr. Wilbur and Dillard McCombs graciously gave for this project.

The Methodist Church in our community is going forward with their new addition and running water project.

Twenty-two people from Peachtree Baptist Church attended the Youth Night services at Mt. Pisgah. There some participated in a special choir of young people from through our Western North Carolina Association.

During the special Youth Week Observance in the Peachtree Baptist Church, thirty-seven young people filled offices in the church. Danny Lunsford, Marble, was the visiting youth pastor at both services on Sunday.

The Y.W.A. of Peachtree Baptist Church held its regular meeting with Martha Hendrix on Tuesday night. Nine members and their leader, Mrs. Paul Suderth was present, also a visitor Miss Wanda Cole.

Miss Judy Rogers represented her church in the Better Speakers Tournament held in Marble Baptist Church, Monday night. Here she spoke on "What is Worship", and was declared the winner over three other participants.

Rev. Lester Stowe has been called as pastor to Pleasant Valley Baptist Church. We shall miss both Mr. and Mrs. Stow, but know they will be a blessing in their new church field.

Mrs. Caldwell Is Honored

MURPHY - The members of the John Wesley Sunday School class of the First Methodist Church honored Mrs. Brown Caldwell, recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening, March 17, in the Men's Bible Classroom of the church.

Yellow tapers in silver candelabra and arrangements of spring flowers carried out the color scheme of yellow and green.

Mrs. Clark Benson, Mrs. C. L. Alverson and Miss Clara McCombs were winners in the contests.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and punch was served by Mrs. W. P. Odom and Mrs. Tom Mauney.

The honor guest received many lovely gifts from class members.

-M-
