"Education" Theme Of H.D. Club Meet

ANDREWS - Thirty-five members of Home Demonstration Clubs of Cherokee County attended the District meeting at Thunderbird Lodge, Robbinsville, Wednesday, April 28.

Registration and coffee hour at 10 a.m. was followed by a "welcome" by Mrs. Wm. Collins of Robbinsville. Mrs. C. L. Alverson of Murphy gave the response. Mrs. Huel McRae of Robbinsville gave a brief devotional and lead the group singing the hymn, "Sweet Hour of Prayer".

The theme of the program was "Education, the Pathway To The Future". Dr. Frances Triggs, a college professor of psychology, author and currently chairman of Committee on Diagnostic Reading Tests, Inc. of Mtn Home, N.C. stressed the need for preparing the child for education in the home before he goes to school. She discussed the subject of "Drop-outs" and told the constructive ways to prevent it. She urged women to work for Kindergartens and Adult Education programs. She concluded with a film from H.E.A. on Child's mental health.

Mrs. Virginia Townson, Regional Librarian in Cherokee County, presented an educational exhibit and a display of literature. Mrs. Mabel Rayburn told of the Bookmobile service to outlying sections.

Following lunch, Mrs. Margaret Decker of Asheville gave a report on the National H. D. Council held in Hawaii.

Mrs. Guy Padgett of Hayesville invited the group to come to Clay County for the 1966 district meeting.

Miss Sandra Ledford
Weds Jerry Ross Winfrey

ANDREWS - Miss Sandra Ledford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Huston Ledford of Andrews, became the bride of Terry Ross Winfrey, son of Mrs. Lawrence Winfrey of Andrews and the late Lawrence Winfrey, Friday, April 30, at 7 o'clock in the Andrews First Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. C. Christmas. Music was presented by Mrs. Dan Hawk, organist, and Miss Doris Raxter, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of slipper satin, appiqued at waist and neckline with glass beadwork, and fashioned with a full length train. Her veil was of silk illusion attached to a satin pillbox topped with satin flowers centered with seed pearls. She carried a white Prayer Book centered with a purple showered orchid and she wore a single strand of pearls.

Miss Vesta Ward was maid of honor and wore a floor length dress of pink satin and a veil of illusion attached to velvet flowers. Her arm bouquet was of mixed flowers. Paul Brooks was best man.

Study Course Ends At First Methodist

ANDREWS - Members of the W. S. C. S. and Wesleyan Service Guild attended the final study course of the season at the First Methodist Fellowship Hall Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. S. Freel, chairman of Missionary Education, reviewed the "Book of Genesis", by Charles F. Kraft. The author wrote it in play form using the world as a stage. "Each new day is a new beginning and each generation a new Genesis God's character is revealed in Genesis".

Mrs. Freel showed slides taken in Rome and Vatican City of Michaelangelos Interpretation of the Creation and Flood. She also used visual aids and had an exhibit of

Rebecca Harris was flower girl and Tony Hyde was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of white Cluny lace over gold and matching accessories. Her corsage was of Talsman roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a dress of blue silk shantung with bone accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are 1964 graduates of Andrews High School. She has been employed at Owenby Manufacturing Co. and he is employed by American Oil Co. in Atlanta where they will reside.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a yellow light wool suit with bone accessories and the orchid detached from her Prayer Book.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor with Mrs. Glen McGuire, Mrs. Bill Harris, Mrs. Noah Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Bill Bristol and Mrs. Donald Hogan assisting.

Mrs. E. U. Burch, who served as wedding consultant, entertained members of the wedding party at a buffet supper following rehearsal Thursday night.

various modern and antique Bibles in different translations.

Members presented Mrs. Freel with a gift in appreciation for her time and effort in presenting the courses each season.

Refreshments were served to the 11 members attending.

Andrews Circle

ANDREWS - Mrs. John Christy and Mrs. Jay Gernert attended the annual Waynesville District Meeting of W.S.C.S. held at the Cherokee Methodist Church Friday, April 30 at 10 a.m. Fifty societies were represented.

The theme of the program was "One Witness in One World". Mrs. Leslie Barnhardt, conference president, of Charlotte, N. C. gave an inspiring address in which she noted the church must reckon with technical advances and the swiftly changing pace of life.

Members of the Andrews Circles pledged $210.00 for Conference Mission work for 1965-1966. It was stated that the district pledge of $10,000 will be realized in spite of the fact there has been no growth in membership.

Hostesses for the meeting were Jackson, Swain and Macon Sub-Districts. Two hundred thirty-two women attended.

The Western Sub District Meeting will be held in Murphy on May 17.
