Rep. Taylor Speaks At Campground Dedication

HAYESVILLE - "I have been impressed by the Clay County Development Program. It is one of the best in the area and I know that you are pleased with the development of the Jack Rabbit Recreation Area here in one of the most beautiful sections of the Nantahala National Forest," said Congressman Roy A. Taylor here Sunday as he spoke at the dedication of the new Jack Rabbit Mountain Recreation Campground. Perfect weather greeted Congressman Taylor as he arrived here for the ceremony, and some 500 persons were at the campground to hear his speech. Thomas C. Day, Chairman of the Clay County Planning Board, was master of ceremonies for the event and introduced Congressman Taylor.

The new recreation area was developed by the U. S. Forest Service under the Accelerated Public Works Program. Facilities include 50 camping sites with table, fireplaces, garbage container, tent platforms and modern water and sanitary facilities with another 50 units to be completed by August 1 of this year. A fishing and boating access area has been constructed by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission.

'Rambling In Clay'

By: Mrs. Neal R. Kitchens

I was talking to Mr. Edgar C. Grove one of our NEWCOMERS to Clay County this week. He is formerly of Miami, Fla. and is building a new year round home on the Wildlife Access Road near Ledford's Chapel, overlooking Lake Chatuge. I was telling him all about the beautiful scenery in Clay County and I said "To me there is no place as pretty". He said "Do you want me to tell you a prettier place?" I stopped, kinda taken aback and he started laughing. He said "Well there ain't" and put emphasis on the ain't. He continued "I have been all over North Carolina looking for a place for the past 15 years, and I have found my UTOPIA here in Clay County. It has every thing I have ever hoped and dreamed of".

Mr. Grove is a retired postal employee of Miami. One of the prettiest sights I've seen is the red rambler rose that has twined itself almost to the top of the big white pine tree at the Horace Garrison home. Perfect corsages could be picked from the limbs with the greenery already supplied. Speaking of roses aren't the ones in front of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Colemans place just out of this world. Every one who passes enjoys them and their sweet fragrance.

Talk about someone with a green thumb, it's Mrs. Odell Shook (Gladys). Their whole place is a flame with flowers. The one spot I particularly enjoy is the gorgeous petunias she planted down at the new U. S. Post Office. Bet you didn't know that Gladys was the one who bought the plants furnished the rich dirt and chicken litter and then planted them. Martha Hoyle a post office employee helped to set them out. According to Gladys she had bought red, white and blue petunias to plant under the flag; but they turned out to be red, orchid and purple. Well they are simply beautiful and I feel that others share my feelings in saying "Thank You Gladys". Mrs. Shook is always putting bouquets of fresh flowers at the post office and other business places for people to enjoy.

You know Austella Miller pointed out something to me the other day that I was not aware of myself. She asked me if I wasn't more observant since I had been doing this Rambling column. After thinking about I realized this was quite true and that I get so much more out of life, because unconsciously I had become accustomed to looking at life more closely.

Guess many share my experience in having the telephone ring at the most inopportune times. Seems that I never fail to hear it when I am out side hanging clothes.

Last week after I got home from work I had walked down to the mail box to take a close look at our petunia bed. The phone started ringing no sooner than I got down there. Seems the thing has a way of ringing louder and louder. I started up the steep concrete drive fast as I could, ran onto the front porch, gave the screen a yank, forgetting that I had left it hooked that morning when I went to work. I bounded round the house to the side entrance and started down the hall fast as I could. Hit a scatter rug and almost went down, but grabbed both sides of the hall and righted myself, just as I rounded the corner to the living room, I hit another scatter rug (phone ringing all the time) and this time I went into a skid and landed just four paces short of the phone - you guessed it that phone became as silent as little boy caught invading the cookie jar.

Now I'll get down to the business side of life - like addressing and mailing a thousand "second tax notices" to all unpaid tax payers.

Couldn't help but be amused at the typing error in last weeks edition. I had written "The camp sights at Jack Rabbit are nestled among the majestic Oaks". It came out in the paper "The camp sights at Jack Rabbit are nestled among the majestic Coaks". Oh! Well.

Mrs. Lillie Price of the Oak Forest section spent last week with Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Penland and David of Greenville, S. C. spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Penland at Oak Forest. Mr. and Mrs. Penland have both been ill for some time. They are doing very well at the present time.

Mrs. Penley Ledford of Bell Creek and Mrs. French Cobe spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ledford, Sheila, Sharon and Mellisa attended the graduation of Mr. and Mrs. Ledford's son Richard Gene Ledford at Fort Jackson, S. C. last weekend. They also visited points of interest in Columbia, S. C. They had to cancel plans for Myrtle Beach, S. C. due to rain. Richard returned home with them and will go to Ft. Knox, Ky. for advanced training in the Armored Division after spending a 14 day furlough in Hayesville.
