Skip Bristol Is Contest Winner

ANDREWS - Skip Bristol, little realized few months ago when he entered a contest for Monogram Models that he would be a proud winner of a $100.00 U. S. Saving Bond plus a Mouse Monster shirt.

The contest, to get ideas of how children thought a monster should look and be made, and in not more than 25 words why they chose that particular idea.

Skip received a telegram July 22 from David L. Ward, Public Relations Director for Monogram Models of Morton Grove, Ill. telling him that out of 10,000 entries he was a third place winner. A telephone call and two letters followed, verifying the call and adding congratulations.

Skip will be 13 years of age on August 18. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bristol.
