Jackets Lose Opener To East Fannin 18-7

East Fannin Ga. defeated the Hayesville Yellow Jackets in their opening game 18-7 last Friday night in Hayesville. Johnny McDavis, East Fannin half-back, was the leading ground gainer for both sides. He alone racked up more yards rushing than the combined backfield for Hayesville. Mc-Daris picked up a total of 72 yards rushing and even returned the opening kickoff for 100 yards and a touchdown only to have it nullified with a clipping penalty. Niether team scored during the opening quarter but East Fannin scored in the second quarter when Reel burst through the Hayesville line for thirteen yards and a touch-

Antarctic Service Medal Awarded To John Shelton

HAYESVILLE - John A. Shelton son of Mr. and Mrs. David Shelton of Hayesville, has been awarded the Antarctic Service Medal at National Weather Records Center, Mr. Shelton, meterological technican in the Climatic Analysis Section and leader of the Data Preparation Unit served in the South Pole from Sept. 1963 to March of 1964. Congress recently took note of the service of Shelton and another man, Raymond L. Whitney and other former Polar Operations Projectemployes and authorized medals for them. Dr. Robert M. White, chief of the Weather Bureau sent letters and medals to these two men.

'We are just proud of the efforts of those Weather Bureau members who played such an important role in the success of the national and international programs in Antartica over the past decade," Dr. White said.

"The Congressof the United States has authorized the striking of the Antarctic Service Medal to signify our national appreciation to those who participated in this demanding venture at the bottom of the world . .

"It is a great pleasure and priviledge to present to you this symbol of gratitude of your country for the marked contributions you have made to U. S. expeditions in Antarcita" Dr. White said in seperate letters to these two

'Rambling In Clay'

Every time I hear the beau tiful voice of our own Katie Powers, I am deeply grateful that she came back to Clay to live and work where she is so badly needed. Miss Powers not only sings but she teaches piano. She is very talented. Many seek the lights of the bright city. Katie says she is content to work at home where she feels she is needed.
