Mary Faye Brumby

MARY FAYE BRUMBY FOR STATE SENATOR

33rd Senatorial District May 28 Democratic Primary

Mrs. Mary Faye Brumby, manufacturer and business woman, is seeking the Democratic Nomination in the May 28 Primary for State Senator in the newly created 33rd Senatorial District.

Mrs. Brumby served in the House in the 1965 Regular Session and two Extra Sessions.

She was a member of nine Committees including the Education Committee, Finance Committee, Conservation and Development Committee, and Health Committee.

Mrs. Brumby appeared before the Utilities Committee in behalf of Westco Telephone Co., and was instrumental in getting tolls eliminated between Murphy and Andrews.

She also was successful in having Fort Butler declared an historic site and secured a grant of $6,000 from the General Assembly for archaeological research and planning.

Mrs. Brumby supported and voted for increased appropriations for roads, schools, teachers, state highway employees, and other state employees.

Governor Dan K. Moore appointed Mrs. Brumby September 28, 1965 to the State Council on Mental Retardation for a term of four years.

She has also recently been invited to join the International Platform Association whose membership includes outstanding people throughout the nation, including President Johnson and Vice-President Hubert Humphrey.

Mrs. Brumby headed the 300 Million Dollar Road Bond Drive in Cherokee County which passed by one of the largest percentages in the state.

At the close of the General Assembly Mrs. Brumby was voted by a Raleigh Newspaper as one of five most outstanding freshmen Legislators.

Mrs. Brumby holds an Associate Arts Degree from Young Harris College and a B. S. Degree in Elementary Education from Western Carolina College.

Mrs. Brumby feels that her business experience, education and experience in the General Assembly qualifies her for State Senator.
