

we care

why should we guarantee other people's products?

If we didn't, we couldn't honestly say WE CARE. Could we?

You see, before any product is allowed on our shelves, we've checked it out pretty carefully.

We've checked the company that makes it.

We've checked to be sure the product is all the package says it is.

If you ever buy anything at A&P you're not happy with, you don't have to bother to write a letter to the company that made it.

Just tell your A&P store manager. He'll give you your money back.

We'll get in touch with that company for you... and for us.

That's A&P's guarantee.

No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

Not every store can offer you a guarantee like that.

A&P can... and does. Shouldn't A&P be your store?

MERVIN ROWLAND

USS FORRESTAL (CVA-59) FHTNC-- Navy Commander Mervin Rowland, son of Mr. Rowland of Marble has returned to Norfolk, Va., after taking part in a six-week training cruise in the Caribbean aboard this attack aircraft carrier.

The training consisted of various drills and exercises held under the watchful eye of the Fleet Training Group, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, whose task was to insure that every man on board was familiar with his duties, and knew how to react in case of emergency.

His wife, Alice, lives at 1124 Third Ave., Columbus, Ga.

WALTER E. AMOS & KENNETH G. PACK

CHARLESTON, S.C.--Two U.S. Air Force aircraft mechanics from Murphy are members of an airlift wing cited for setting an unofficial world's records for low-altitude airdrops by C-141 Lockheed Starlifter aircraft.

Airman Second Class Walter E. Amos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Amos of Rt. 1, Murphy and Airman Second Class Kenneth G. Pack son of Mr. and Mrs. J.H. Pack of Murphy supported the 437th Military Airlift Wing at Charleston AFB, S.C., in its recent test airdrop of 34 tons of cargo.

The payload, a string of 28 loaded pallets connected by cables, was paraded from a 500-foot altitude at 160 miles per hour. The cargo hit a 120-foot square bullseye on the Starlifter's initial flight over the target zone.

Wing members conducted the test--part of a demonstration for a Military Airlift Command (MAC) headquarters inspection team--to prove the vast potential of the huge new C-141. The test, combined with other capabilities demonstrated by the airman's unit, brought the wing a successful rating from MAC headquarters observers.
