Tom Day of Hayesville, who has been working to secure better telephone service in southwestern North Carolina for the past seven years, says the Commission will hear testimony from this area beginning at 9 a.m. Thursday in the Federal Building in Asheville.

He said the caravan will leave Hayesville at 6:45 a.m. and meet cars from Murphy at Marble around 6:15 a.m. Cars from Andrews and Robbinsville are expected to join the motorcade.

Day said it is important that anyone having a complaint against Westco Telephone Co. attend the hearings and be prepared to testify.
