TOWNSON FUNERAL HOME
MURPHY ROBBINSVILLE

Dear friends,
When a death occurs, the funeral director of your choice should be promptly notified. With the family doctor, he will process the death certificate, then procure the burial permit and begin funeral arrangements. When violent or accidental death occurs, the coroner or medical examiner must be notified. The body must not be moved or disturbed without the coroner's permission. He may order an autopsy or inquest to determine the cause of death.

Respectfully,
David Townson
