Mary Louise Cooper Weds Butch Sursavage

Miss Mary Louise Cooper became the bride of Joseph George (Butch) Sursavage, Jr., Thursday evening, August 17, in the Andrews First Methodist Church.

The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joel T. Key of Winston-Salem. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Dan Hawk, pianist, and Mrs. Charles Freel, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glenn Cooper and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sursavage, Sr.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of chiffon taffeta with long sleeve empire waist and a A-line skirt. The bodice and skirt were of Alencon lace. The detachable circular court train was edged with the matching lace and had applique throughout the train. Her veil was of imported silk illusion and attached to a cluster of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a Colonial bouquet of talisman roses centered with a detachable corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. William Bline Blevins, Jr. was matron of honor. She wore a full length sheath with empire waist, scoop neck, and three-quarter puff sleeves of apricot nylon chiffon over taffeta. A full chiffon drape was decorated with a satin bow. Her matching pill box was attached to imported illusion. She carried two long stem talisman roses.

With gowns identical to that of the honor attendant and carrying a single talisman rose, were the bridesmaids, Miss Robin Ammons, cousin of the bride, of Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Pat Cooper of Bryson City, Mrs. Tommy Webster of Atlanta, and Miss Pat Guffey of Andrews.

Regina Cooper, niece of the bride, was flower girl and Arthur F. Holman, III, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

James H. Workman of Woodruff, S. C. was best man. Ushers were Floyd T. Rogers of Clyde, Wayne Mass of Sumter, S. C. and Bruce Burbick of Liverpool, Ohio, all students at Clemson University and Robert V. Cooper, brother of the bride, of McColl, S. C., James R. Sursavage, brother of the bridegroom, and William Hugh Hamilton, both of Andrews.

Economic Association. The couple will live in Clemson.
