Peachtree News

Peachtree Community Club met in regular session on the 2nd Monday night at the school with Pot Luck Supper. We did not have our usual large crowd, but some 35 enjoyed the delightful meal and fellowship.

Midget -Mite Program Moving

Plans are being made to supply uniforms for all boys who are playing with the Murphy Mite Football team this week. Several of the players did not receive uniforms last week because of a shortage. Chuck McConnell and Jack Dickey are coaching the boys in the under age 12 team.

Coaches Bobby Roberson and Haskel Roberson announced that the Murphy Midgets have begun practice at the Murphy Elementary School. Boys between the ages of 12 and 14 are eligible. Both teams are sponsored by the Murphy Lions Club.

ship meeting at which time definite plans were made to work on our Community Picnic and play area. We hope everyone is going to be back from vacations and we will have our usual large crowd for the September meeting.

The president of our Community Club, Mrs. Marcella Smith, has recently undergone surgery, but is getting along fine.

The Rev. R. C. Shearin, of Hampton, Va. was the visiting minister for the revival held recently at Peachtree Baptist Church. It was a real joy to have someone return who had held his first pastorate here 33 years ago. The pastor Rev. Robert Barker baptized seven people at the close of the revival.

Misses Margaret and Doris Hendrix left Tuesday to resume their teaching duties in Leaksville, N. C. after spending the summer with their parents, the Glenn Hendrixs.

Miss Carmolitta Smith is spending a few days at home after studying pharmacy in Ohio this summer.

Mrs. Lloyd Hendrix, Martha and Mrs. Bob Hendrix and Kim visited in North Wilkesboro last weekend. While there they attended the wedding of Miss Adrienne Smith in Asheboro, N. C., who is Mrs. Hendrix's niece.

We have news that Mr. Vernon Parker continues to improve from a serious heart attack of several days ago. He is in a local hospital.

The J. C. Kilpatrick's are enjoying a visit from their daughter Carlene, her husband and 3 children who now reside in Arizona. Maxine the daughter who lives in Oak Ridge also visited here last week-end.

The Sunbeams of Peachtree Baptist Church had charge of the Prayer Service on last Wednesday night with 35 people present. They also had picnic on Friday night with 25

N.C. Farmers Receive $82 Million FHA Loans

Since the signing of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act by President Franklin Roosevelt on July 22, 1937, more than 8,100 farm operators in North Carolina have either changed their status from tenants to farm owners or have been able to enlarge and develop their family farms to more efficient units, according to Melvin H. Hearn, State Director, of the Farmers Home Administration.

In observing the 30th anniversary of the farm ownership loan program, Hearn said that in the 30-year period his agency had advanced some $82,000,000 to farmers in the state, and that currently there are more than 3700 active borrowers in the program.

The number of Farm ownership loans in Cherokee County is 14, amounting to $118,966.64; Graham County is 12, amounting to $83,710.27; and Clay County is 45, amounting to $613,008.06. These numbers represent the active farm ownership loans on the program and do not include those that have paid up.

Hearn said the Bankhead-Jones Act established the concept of advancing to tenant farmers supervised long-term, low-interest credit up to 100 percent of the value of a farm, allowing them to purchase and develop family-size farms.

people present. Since it was Sunbeam Focus Week they shined in many ways.

Rev. Robert Barker with Mrs. Barker and the Hardy Morris's are having a two weeks vacation at points of interest in the South East.

Mrs. Jim Hendrix, Mrs. Marjorie Henson and children spent last week-end in Montgomery, Ala where they attended a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Haggard, brother of Mrs. Hendrix.

Each loan is based on a sound farm and home management plan and borrowers receive guidance in carrying out planned operations, he said. Recently, Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman, called the Bankhead-Jones Act, "one of the great landmarks in American agriculture." He said: "At the time the legislation was passed, two out of every five farmers were tenants and more were becoming tenants every year. Today, about 83 percent of the nation's farmers are full or part owners of land they operate. State Director Hearn said that on a national basis the Farmers Home Administration has advanced more than $2 billion during the 30-year period, helping nearly 900,000 people living on farms.

Since 1961, the Farmers Home Administration has advanced more than 1.3 billion in farm ownership loans compared to $833 million in the previous 24 years of the program. North Carolina has shown a similar dramatic increase in these loans since 1961, Hearn said.

"Without these loans," he said, "many of these farmers might have been forced off their farms and into crowded cities. With the, these farmers have been able to live in and help build rural America."

A recent 5-year national progress report, through 1967, shows that the average FHA borrower increased his gross income from $10,115 before his loan, to $18,565 gross income five years later, Hearn said.

Farmer ownership loans are made only to farmers who cannot obtain credit elsewhere. Repayment of loans has been excellent; the amount of principal written off over 30 years is less than four-tenths of one percent. This has been more than made up by interest payment, Mr. Hearn said.

Farm ownership loans are made at the 72 local Farmers Home Administration offices serving all rural areas in the state.
