Linda Lou Jones Weds Patrick R. Durner, Jr.

Miss Linda Lou Jones of Asheville, daughter of Mrs. Frances Jones of Murphy and the late Leonard Jones, became the bride of Patrick Roger Durner, Jr. of Asheville Saturday morning at 11 at St. Lawrence Catholic Church in Asheville.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Durner of Asheville.

Father Robert Wilken officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Kenneth Jones.

She wore a dress of satin peau de soie styled with empire waist, scoop neck and long sleeves with a motif of re-embroidered lace down the front. The detachable circular train was styled with motif of matching edging lace. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a cluster of seed pearls and sequins.

Mrs. Sandra Hicks, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Gail Durner of Asheville, sister of the groom; Mrs. Zaida Dehozier of Canton, Mrs. Shirley Huff of Asheville, Miss Sheila Sneed of Murphy, Miss Mary Beth Hunnicutt of Asheville and Miss Nomay Ware of Charlotte.

The bridal attendants wore dresses of rose nylon chiffon with three-quarter length sleeves and scoop neck. The dresses and sleeves were edged with the matching satin with hats of matching illusion attached to a cluster of seed pearls.

Scott Hicks, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. Roger Durner, Sr. served as his son's best man.

The ushers were Joe Durner of Asheville, cousin of the groom; Larry G. Duffie of Asheville, Paul Corey of Columbia, S. C. and Jack Anderson of Asheville.

The mother of the bride wore a beige wool suit with matching dark brown accessories.

A reception was held after the ceremony in St. Lawrence's Laurentine Hall. Mrs. George Durner, Mrs. William Tennant and Mr. Albert Herman assisted at the reception.

For a short wedding trip, the bride wore an aqua wool suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage from the bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Asheville.

Mrs. Durner is a graduate of Murphy High School. She attended Memorial Mission Hospital School of Nursing and is now employed as a nurse at the hospital.

The groom graduated from Lee Edwards High School. He is a veteran of the U. S. Navy and is now employed by Hayes and Hopson.

Marla Marie Douglas Weds W. Dickie Davis

Miss Marla Marie Douglas became the bride of William Dickie Davis on Saturday November 4 at 7:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. R.W. Prevost officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin V. Douglas of Murphy and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren C. Davis of Murphy.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of ivory peau de soie, designed by Exquisite Bridals of New York. Chantilly lace graced the empire waistline and edged the long fitted sleeves. The molded bodice featured a modified scoop neckline. The tubular court train was circled with wide bands of matching lace. Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a seed pearl crown. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Miss Susan Douglas was her sister's maid of honor. She chose a dress of moss green chiffon and beige crepe. A fitted bodice with long sleeves and scoop neckline topped the easy formal length skirt. A wide back panel of beige crepe was outlined with moss green and topped by a designer bow, with matching headdress of illusion and carried a nose gay of bronze mums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Stalcup and Miss Peggy Hyde of Murphy. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor and they carried nosegays of bronze mums. Miss Tanya McConnell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McConnell of Murphy, was flower girl. She wore a formal gown of moss green chiffon. Honorary bridesmaids were Susie McDonald, Karol Kaye, Sandy Rogers and Mrs. Kenny Jane Palmer.

Billy Forsyth of Murphy served as best man. Ring bearer was Bob Gentry, nephew of the groom. Ushers included Tommy Palmer, Samuel Davis, Gary Bryson, Dave Alverson all of Murphy and Mike Smith of Fayetteville, N.C.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Janet Hamilton organist and Mrs. Velma Burch vocalist. Mrs. Burch sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer". The bride's mother chose a two-piece, deep green lace dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece gold lace dress with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a barley color three piece knit suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage.
