40 YEARS AGO, APRIL 12, 1929

The four towering red elm trees which stood in the corner of Murphy's public square for nearly a century have been cut down, worked up into wood, and the last of the rubbish was removed this week.

According to information secured from C. B. Hill, the trees were brought here from Burke County in 1843 by Daniel Ramseur and planted in front of Mr. Ramseur's hotel, which stood on the site of Parker's Drug Store. That was 86 years ago, and Mr. Hill says the growth lines of the trees counted 88, making the trees two years old when planted or set out.

Mrs. Hadley Dickey spent Monday in Franklin.
