lay County Men Teach, Attend

aywood Tech Sawmill School

By Guy Padgett Staff Writer

Who ever heard of anyone ag to school to learn to be a gging hick"? Sounds about ridiculous as to attend ege to learn how to make wmill gravy". Well, the officials at wood Technical Institute sn't seem to think it culous at all. They can see handwriting on the wall says young men are not rning special skills in bering from their fathers played their trad p played their trade bughout a normal life. Man led as sawyers, saw-filers, ber graders and dry kiln rators are becoming so

But he emphasizes fact that with very short reticeships, these men uld be better prepared for ese jobs than their itemporaries with a life-time perience, but without efit of technical training. A Clay Coounty man, A.J. er of Route 4, Hayesville, is the Haywood Tech teaching f as a lumber grading ructor. His brother, the . W.A. "Andy" Cloer, is an instructor. Their father, late Thad Cloer, was once erintendent for Gennett mber Company in

Other instructors in the lumbering industry crafts are Al Neilson, George, Wright and

W.W.Roland. Five Clay County men are enrolled as students: Jack Brooks, WAllace Ledford, Mike Morgan, Ed Lands and Alex

Their next classes in this new program for training sawyers, saw filers, lumber grader, dry kiln operators will begin in January of 1970. They have two fully automatic sawmills, one band mill and one circle saw mill. Of necessity, they must produce lumber and lumber products, but Crites emphasizes that the whole purpose of this operation is for teaching those fundamental lumberman's

The Lodge was 'in business" three years before it was chartered in 1869. It has listed, in alphabetical order, every person who has ever been a member and for about half that number it has listed: date of birth and death (for those deceased) maiden name of wife, name of father, maiden name of mother and date when he became a mason.

You will also find pictures of two of the buildings used as Masonic Halls in Hayesville and data concerning the building of these halls.

The general public can ourchase these books from rodd Phillips at the Havesville Barber Shop or from the lodge secretary, who at present is J. Guy Padgett, P. O. Box 485,

Health Group Fund Drive

Nearing Goal

State of Franklin Health Council fund raising drive is making progress toward its goal of $10,000. The Murphy goal is approximately $600, and according to Mrs. Cloe Moore, fund drive chairman, much of this goal has been realized. Mrs. Moore said, "We are encouraged at the support this worthy project is

The funds raised will be used to match federal money amounting to approximately $35,000. The $10,000 in local money must be raised each year for the next six years to keep the health council

The State of Franklin area includes the seven western North Carolina counties of Haywood, Clay, Graham, Macon, Jackson, Swain, and Cherokee. The purpose of the health council is to serve as an overall planning and coordinating body for health services in the region.

By uniting in purpose and planning the resources of the area, health services to benefit all the people can be developed without duplication of purpose and money.

Contributions may be sent to the county chairmen or to the State of Franklin Health Council ,Inc., Post Office Box 2672, Cullowhee, North CArolina 28723. The council is a non-profit, tax deductible organization.
