Four Square Gets Grant

Four Square Community Action, Inc., has received a federal grant of $68,321 from the Office of Economic Opportunity. The funds will support Four Square's community programs in Cherokee, Clay, Graham, and Swain counties for the next six months.

The bulk of the funds will be used to assist the development of low-income community and neighborhood organizations into self-help groups which will take the initiative in identifying poverty problems and work toward their solution.

The OEO grant also provides funds for specific technical assistance to low-income families. The Cooperative and Horticultural program will provide technical assistance for the development of trellis tomato growing in the four counties, and for the organization of local cooperatives which will promote economic development and income improvement.

Funds are also provided for a job developer who will cooperate with local business and industry in development on-the-job training projects under the MDTA (Manpower Development Training Act) for unemployed and underemployed persons. He will also assist the placement of low-income and unskilled persons into available jobs.

The OEO grant includes funds for an Emergency Food and Medical Services program to see all four counties. Funds will be used to supplement the diets of low-income families who suffer from malnutrition. The Four Square office located on Second Street Andrews.
