Your Weekly Horoscope

January 15 through January 21

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Listen and ye shall learn in week ahead. Listen to ideas from one whom you consider "far out." There will be a grain of truth to what this person has to tell you. You, of course, must winnow the fact from the fancy. You will get message from one who admires you before week ends. Bask in compliments which will come your way. They are sincere.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Someone over 30 really needs your help, Taurus. Are you going to be a real brick and give it? Or are you going to hold back? Olga suggests you aid and comfort. Sometimes when you cast your bread upon the waters, you get back more than just soggy bread. Give it a whirl.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You certainly do lead a push-pull existence, Gem. It's your nature. And the week ahead will be even more frantic than usual. You will be forced by circumstances to make some serious decisions. Time is excellent to consider the new, the novel, the exciting.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Don't close your eyes or your heart in week ahead, Moonbaby. You may be approached by friend for advice. If so, be most careful not to say more than you think is absolutely necessary. Do not volunteer extra help. On last day of week you should hear from one who has been on your mind for some time. If you do not get message by late afternoon, then you contact this person if possible.

LEO (July 23-August 22): Don't let the arteries of communication harden, Leo. There is one who has a message for you but may be too timid to speak. This message could have important consequences. Be available. Try not to appear remote. Week winds up on a note of concern.

VIRGO (August 23-September 22): If you are searching for inner peace, Virgo, week ahead is excellent time for progress. However, you should understand that peace is not a thing of permanence. So if you have a moment now and then of peace... hold it close and treasure it. Treasure it well.

LIBRA (September 23-October 22): Frontiers beckon like open gates, Libra, for those who would have the courage to venture. Have you the courage to follow your inner heart of hearts? Olga thinks you have. In fact, Olga thinks that her Libras have not only the courage but also the ability to do just about anything they make up their minds to. After all, beauty and brains often go together. And with Libras, it is a common combination.

SCORPIO (October 23-November 21): Competition seems to be key for week ahead. Scorp. This could mean either competition for career advancement, or perhaps a romantic situation is involved. In any event, be prepared. Like a good scout. On last day of week you may be called upon to do a favor for a friend. Do it and then keep your mouth shut. In fact, keeping your mouth shut just may be the favor asked.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): Say, Olga has only one word of advice for you for the week ahead, and that is this: don't walk the wire without a net under you. You will, no doubt interpret this message correctly. Your intuition will be unusually strong in coming week.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 19): You are scheduled to have your own private little "Laugh-in" in week ahead. So relax, and enjoy. Last two days of week are ideal for secret plans to materialize.

AQUARIUS (January 20-February 18): A feeling of oneness will engulf you in week ahead, Aquarius. You will watch as distinctions blur. Symbols will seem to lose their import. Very important and very personal week.

PISCES (February 19-March 20): Hell on the home-front, Pisces. You may as well know. After all, knowledge is power. So someone once said. At any rate, don't say old Olga didn't try to give you a decent warning. However by last day of week, events will tend to simmer down. But by that time you'll no doubt be so worn out you won't much give a fig.
