

4-H'ers Go To Camp

A total of 43 Cherokee County 4-H'ers left Monday morning for a week at Camp Schaub, located in Haywood County near Waynesville. They were accompanied by Wendell Hedden, association Extension agent in charge of 4-H activities and several junior leaders.

Youth Council Officers

The Murphy Youth Council held its organizational meeting last Thursday at the Murphy power Board. Officers elected were; left to right, Teresa Davis, president; Roy Wells, vice-president; Linda Pope, secretary-treasurer; and Tim Ramsey, reporter. The tentative goal of this council is a complete recreation center for the Murphy youth. All interested high school age youth and all interested adults are urged to attend the next meeting, June 29, at 7:30 at the First Baptist Church of Murphy.

Townson Funeral Home

CHARLES A. BURCH

Charles A. Burch 89, of Rt. 1, Hayesville, died early Monday morning in an Andrews Hospital after a long illness.

He was a native of Clay County; a retired farmer, lumberman and merchant. He was a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, a member of the Clay Lodge No 301, having a lifetime membership.

Surviving are 3 daughters; Mrs. Neil Kitchens, Mrs. Claude Street and Mrs. Eugene Waldroup all of Hayesville; four sons, Ralph of Chattanooga, James of Raybun Gap, Ga., Ray, Muscle Shoals, Alabama and Bobby S. Burch of Hayesville; two brothers; Homer and Paul Burch of Hayesville, one sister, Mrs. Lennie Burrell of Hayesville. 15 grandchildren, and nine great-grand children.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Ledford's Chapel United Methodist Church with burial in the church cemetery. The Revs. John Burton, Harry Hawk, and Lewis Walker officiated.

Grandsons served as pallbearers. Masonic graveside rites were conducted by Lodge No 301.

In lieu of flowers, contributions were made to the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Building fund.

Townson funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. SYLVIA L. COLEMAN

Mrs. Sylvia L. Coleman, 27, of Rt. 3, Murphy, died Monday afternoon in the Andrews hospital after a long illness.

She was a native of Biddeford, Maine, a Registered Nurse, a graduate of Southeastern General Nursing School, Lumberton; a member of the American A.S.N. and a Charter member of the Broadway Womans Club at Broadway, N.C.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church, Biddeford, Maine.

Surviving are her husband, Harold Coleman, and her father; Frank Ligertwood of Biddeford, Maine.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Grape Creek Baptist Church, with burial in the church cemetery.

The Rev. Raymond Carroll and Howard Killian officiated. Townson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

MRS. JESSIE LONG GARRETT

Mrs. Jessie Long Garrett, 73, of Marble, died Saturday in Buncombe County, after a short illness. She was born in Union County, Ga., but was a resident of Marble. She was the widow of James H. Garrett, Sr., who died in April of this year.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Horace Rogers of Swannanoa, and Mrs. Fred Weeks of Summertown, Tenn.; three sons, Willard Garrett of Waynesville, Owen Garrett of Clyde, and James H. Garrett, Jr. of Alexander, N.C.; a brother, Britt Long of Murphy; 18 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 3 p.m. Monday at Marble Springs Baptist Church, of which she was a member.

The Revs. Claude Surratt and Miller Grice officiated. Burial was in Moss Cemetery. Pallbearers were grandsons.
