

PRETTY INEZ HILL

A Georgia Girl Ran Away From Home.

WENT TO WASHINGTON

WAS ANXIOUS TO SEE SOMETHING OF THE OUTSIDE WORLD.

Her Brother Arrives in Washington and Will Take Her Back Home--They Will Take in the Sights at the Capital City and Then Return Home.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—Pretty Inez Hill, the eighteen-year-old girl, who ran away from her home at Brown's Crossing, Balwin county, Ga., in order to come to Washington and see something of the world, was found yesterday by Policeman Reynolds, at the Central Union Mission. The officer found that when the girl first came here she stopped at the St. James Hotel, but at the suggestion of a young lady whom she met there, she went to the mission, where she could live more cheaply.

Reynolds located her at the mission, and not wishing to frighten her by calling for her in uniform, went to headquarters and asked Detective Cartey to take the young lady in charge. Inez very readily agreed to go to police headquarters, and a message was sent to her brother, Stephen Hill, who came to Washington Sunday to look for her.

Inez was very glad to see her brother, but was somewhat anxious about the effect of her escapade on the rest of the family. Her brother reassured her, however, and decided to remain in the city a few days in order to give her an opportunity to enjoy the trip. It appears that the girl has always had a longing to visit Washington. She had saved up about $60, and on the day she ran away she asked her sister to drive her to the railroad station so that she might buy a paper from the train boy.

When the station was reached Inez managed to buy a ticket for Macon, and when the train drew in she got aboard. Her sister, who was waiting for her to reappear with a newspaper, saw her wave a farewell just as the train pulled out. The sister followed her to Macon and learned there that she had bought a ticket for Washington. Inez was glad to return home.

Carrier Pigeon Captured.

Logansport, Ind., Sep. 15.—A carrier pigeon with a message signed "Andree" has been captured in this vicinity. The writing is in English, but it is thought that the explorer sent out the message in all languages.

The bird was first seen to fly over a small town called Idaville, and was next seen when it alighted on farmer Weeks's house, in an exhausted condition. Its capture was easy, but in getting the bird down it was injured, which caused its death. Its right foot had a small aluminum band around it, on which was inscribed "No. 21," and the letter "A." Under the left wing was a parchment, containing badly disfigured writing, of which only the following could be read: "August 29. Pole," and the next was erased. Then came the signature, "Andree." The action of the wind had worn the parchment and erased the writing. The whole had been tied on the body of the bird, and while not loosed evidently been in all kinds of weather.

At first it was thought that a practical joke had been played, but the exhausted condition of the bird disproved that.

Bernhardt Saved by a Bather.

Paris, Sept. 14.—The Figaro to-day says that Sarah Bernhardt recently had a narrow escape from death at Belleisle-En-Mer, Department of Morbihan, while endeavoring to reach the seashore via the cliffs. After descending a short distance, Mme. Bernhardt was unable to advance or retreat. Her shrieks for help attracted the attention of a bather, who climbed up to her side and seized her just as a boulder, to which she was clinging, broke away, and thus she was saved from being crushed to death.

The actress and her rescuer lost their footing and rolled down the cliffs to the sea, where they were rescued by a passing boat. While Mme. Bernhardt was only slightly bruised, her rescuer was seriously injured.

Electric Light Plant for Salisbury.

A stock company capitalized at $10,000 has been organized in Salisbury to put in an electric lighting plant. Seven thousand dollars of the stock has already been taken.

HUNGRY FOR PIE.

Broke into a Bakery, and Ate Twenty-Seven Kinds of Pies.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15.—Louis Holben was yesterday held in $500 bonds for the grand jury, charged with breaking into the bakery of Henry Bodenstern last Wednesday and stealing therefrom goods to the value of $3.

A passion for pie, it is alleged, led Louis into the paths of crime. The testimony went to show that he had not only stolen, but had personally consumed twenty seven pies of assorted brands, including the mysterious mince, the luscious pumpkin, and the gaudy lemon meringue.

Death in the Wire.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15.—Charles Yeager, a lineman in the employ of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and two horses were killed by coming in contact with a live wire in Portsmouth yesterday evening. At 6:30 o'clock Yeager was working on a telephone wire at the top of a high pole, when one of his feet touched an electric-light wire, and he received a shock that precipitated him to the ground. The wire broke as Yeager fell, and one end of it dropped on two horses driven to a street car. They were killed as quick as a flash.

Escaped Boys Recaptured.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 15.—The three boys who ran away from the Laurel Reformatory on Saturday afternoon were captured the next morning at Doswell, sixteen miles from Laurel. They were promptly returned to the reformatory. Two of the boys were Tyler Scott and Alexander Hutchins, 18 and 17 years of age, respectively, and another boy, also about 18, whose name is not known.

There have been several escapes from the reformatory in the past, but the fugitives have always been apprehended.

New York Scalping Case.

New York, Sept. 14.—The first hearing under the anti scalping law was had this morning in the Supreme Court, of the city of New York. The room was filled with scalpers. The District Attorney announced to the court that the case before it was a bogus one, made up by the ticket scalpers, and he requested the Judge to dismiss it, stating that the District Attorney proposed to prosecute the law vigorously, and would within a short time have before him a real culprit and a proper case under the law.

Killed by a Fellow Patient.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 15.—Henry Green, an aged patient of the Essex County Hospital for the Insane, was pummeled to death by a fellow patient this morning. It is said his cries were heard a block away, but none of the hospital attendants heard them. The authorities are endeavoring to keep the matter quiet. An investigation will be made.

Passengers Injured.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Two electric cars on the Suburban Electric railway collided while running at full speed along a straight stretch of single track in Harlem Avenue, in La Grange, this morning. The accident happened at 7 o'clock when traffic was heavy and nearly all the passengers on both cars were injured. Both the motormen will die. Fourteen passengers are reported seriously injured. A heavy mist over the track was the cause.

IT WILL BE BERNARD

Fight Over the Eastern District Attorneyship.

COOK WANTS IT BAD

BUT HE WOULD NEVER PASS THE GAUNTLET OF THE SENATE.

Oscar Spears, Elector-at-Large, is After the Plum, as is Also W. S. O'B. Robinson, of the Russell-Grant Faction--Bernard Backed by Skinner.

District Attorney Aycock's term of office expires by limitation on the 19th instant. There is a strong fight going on among several prominent republicans for the position. Mr. Aycock will not doubt be asked to continue in office until his successor is named, as there is scarcely any possibility of an appointment being made before the term expires. The candidates in the race are O. M. Bernard, of Greenville, who is backed by Congressman Skinner. He is also Pritchard's man, and will no doubt be the one who will fill the position.

Chas. A. Cook, of Warrenton, is also pushing for the position. It is understood that he was promised the plum by Pritchard, and he wants the Senator to keep his promise, but that worthy wants Bernard, and from all the information available, Bernard it will be. It is also understood that Mr. Cook has been notified that he can have the appointment, but that it will be under duress, and the appointment will be the only aid extended to him. This means that it is just as well for him to get out of the way, as he would never be confirmed, but would be knifed in the Senate. However, it is thought that if he would come over from the Russell element that he would go through all right. But it is hardly probable that they will be able to proselyte him. We expect that he is like the Hon. J. C. Logan Harris, who recently said that he proposed to stand by Daniel L. Russell as long as there was one pea in the dish.

Oscar Spears is trying to raise a little wind for himself. He bases his claims on being elected at large, but his ladder is a little short of reach. The latest addition is Judge O. O. Robinson, of Goldsboro. He is backed by the Russell and Grant faction, but is in it, nit.

PROF. TOMS BACK AT DURHAM.

He Takes a Position With the Duke Concern--Salary 5,000 Per Year.

The News and Observer correspondent at Durham writes:

"Strange things happen these days. Only a few weeks ago and Durham people mourned the loss of Prof. C. W. Toms as superintendent of their graded schools, and a valuable citizen. His great work as a teacher had attracted universal attention. The University always wants the best, and a chair in that institution was placed at his disposal. He accepted, and just as this people were settling themselves down to the inevitable, the news flashes over the city that Prof. C. W. Toms is coming back to Durham. Well it is a fact. He has resigned his position in the University, and to-day is moving back. There is much conjecture as to what he is coming here for. He takes a position with the mammoth concern of Duke, Sons & Company, at a salary of $5,000 a year. The place will bring him in close confidential relations with the heads of that great business. The future has in store for him greater things in point of business importance and salary. This is but the beginning which will end in Prof. Toms' promotion to a position of great responsibility and trust. A position he is wonderfully capacitated to fill by reason of his great executive ability."

Fleeing From Yellow Jack.

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 15.—Notwithstanding all the precautions that have been taken to prevent the spread of the dread malarial, new cases continue to develop in other localities. The new cases reported to the board of health have greatly alarmed the people here and hundreds are leaving, the outgoing trains are crowded.

President Andrews to Remain.

Providence, R. I., Sep. 15.—E. Benjamin Andrews has withdrawn his resignation as president of Brown University. Last night the students celebrated the event, and the university re-opened to with renewed activity and vigor.

STATE FAIR NOTES.

A Letter From President Battle and Secretary Nichols to Manufacturers.

The following letter was yesterday mailed to the manufacturers of the State by Secretary Nichols:

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 14. To North Carolina Manufacturers: Gentlemen: The great object of the State Fair is to exhibit as far as possible the resources and industries of the State. North Carolina has made more rapid progress in manufacturing enterprises during the last twenty years than any other State in the Union; but with the exception of the State Exposition in 1884 our manufacturers have taken little interest in showing their goods at State Fairs.

The managers for the present year will make special efforts to secure, if possible, a small exhibit—at least, some small article from every manufacturing establishment in the State. These articles will all be property labelled and arranged in a division in the main building, to be known as an "Index to North Carolina Industries." It matters not how small the article, all will receive the same attention. Of course some exhibitors may wish to have a display of their own; so much the better if they do—we have ample room for all.

There is not a manufacturing establishment in the State that cannot send something.

Cotton mills can send a bolt or half bolt of plaids, bunch of yarn or twine.

Woolen mills can send a few yards of the products of their looms.

Canning establishments, samples of their fruits and vegetables.

Wood-workers, samples of their skill, in some form.

Tanners can send samples of their leather and dressed skins.

Saddlers and harness makers can send a saddle, a bridle or a set of harness.

Millers can send a barrel of North Carolina flour, corn meal, etc.

Carriage, buggy and wagon makers can all send vehicles or other useful articles to add to this interesting exhibit.

All are invited to send something.

Exhibitors may send their own show cards, where they have them. Others will be furnished by the society.

The services of an expert will be secured, who will arrange these exhibits in the most attractive style. We believe it will make one of the most interesting exhibits ever shown at any State Fair.

It is hoped that every manufacturing establishment in the State will send something, be it ever so small. Every article will be well cared for and returned at the close of the fair, unless otherwise directed.

Let the exhibit be truly an index to North Carolina industries.

SEPARATE EXHIBITS.

The foregoing plan is not intended to supersede the separate exhibits expected from some of the largest establishments in the State. We want just as many of these individual exhibits as possible, but when this cannot be done, contributions to the general display can be made made.

Address any correspondence to RICHARD H. BATTLE, President JOHN NICHOLS, Secretary.

Funeral of Mrs. Wildes.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Rachel Dewey Wildes were conducted in the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

A large number of friends gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the remains of this noble Christian woman. The services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel. The choir sang "Asleep in Jesus," and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," after which Dr. Daniel read the 23d Psalm and other passages of Scripture, and the service closed with "Rock of Ages." The remains were laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. M. McPheeters, Sr., Dr. J. H. Crawford, W. C. Stronach, C. H. Belvin, S. W. Whiting, J. W. Thompson, Charles Root, Jr., and Benj. Lacy.

Trinity College Notes.

The fifty-fourth year of Trinity College began yesterday with the brightest prospects. One hundred and fifty students settled down to do a hard year's work. The spirit of the old boys' is at its height in every sense, and this mingled with the determination and ambition of the new students will make any college year a success.

Case Set for September 1st.

Attorney General Walker and his associate counsel, Messrs. Cook, Edwards and Bryan, are hard at work on the case of Telegraph Co. vs. Railroad Commission, which has been set for September 1, and will probably be heard in the United States Circuit Court at Wilmington.

UNIVERSITY BOARD

Resignation of Professor Toms Accepted.

DR. ALEXANDER BACK

FLATTERING ENROLLMENT WHICH NEARLY REACHES 500.

Dr. Ernest Bynum Elected Adjunct Professor of History and Political Economy --He Was formerly a Student at the University and Trinity.

The Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina held an important meeting in the executive office at the capitol to-day.

The resignation of Prof. Toms was accepted. No full professor of Pedagogy was elected, but will be later on in the session. The work in this department will be fully prosecuted, however, under President Alderman and Professors Williams and Smith.

Dr. Ernest J. Bynum was elected for one year adjunct professor of history and political economy. Dr. Bynum was once a student at both Trinity College and the University. He has spent four years in Europe, and holds the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Halle, in Germany. He also attended lectures in Leipzig and Brussels.

Hon. Eben Alexander, LL.D., late United States Minister to Greece, has returned to his post at the University as Professor of Greek. He filled this chair before, but obtained a leave of absence from the Trustees when sent on his important diplomatic mission by President Cleveland four years ago.

We are glad to learn from President Alderman that the prospects for this year are most gratifying. Up to last Tuesday the registration, exclusive of students at summer school, was 420. Of this number, 207 are new pupils. Four young ladies are among those enrolled, as follows: Miss Mary MacRae, Fayetteville; Miss Sarah Stockard, Alamance county; Miss C. C. Dodd, Raleigh; and Miss Dixie Lee Bryant, Greensboro. The lady last named is Professor of Geology at the State Normal School, and will return to that institution as soon as it opens.

There are twenty students in the new school of pharmacy, and it bids fair to become one of the most important departments in the University.

TOWLER--BARBER MARRIAGE.

Was a Beautiful Home Wedding--Left for a Northern Tour.

The home of Mr. J. W. Barber this morning was the scene of a happy event.

At 11 o'clock his beautiful daughter, Miss Minnie, was wedded to Mr. James Towler, of Danville, Va. There were no attendants.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Norman, pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church, in a very impressive and beautiful manner.

There were a number of invited friends present. Those from Danville were Misses Emma, Katie and Mamie Jefferson and Mr. James Jones.

The happy couple took the 11:30 north bound train and will spend some time among the northern cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Towler will make their home in Raleigh.

Mr. Towler is a young man of business ability and upon his return will be taken into copartnership by Mr. Barber.

The bride has a host of friends here whose best wishes follow them.

Sorry to Cause Anxiety.

Secretary of State Thompson sometime ago received a request for a copy of the State Laws from a magistrate in the country. The Secretary wrote back that it could be obtained from the Register of Deeds, to whom a lot had been sent for distribution. Though unable to get them from the Register, the magistrate was evidently sorry to trouble the State Department further, for in his second letter, he apologetically said: "Hope, sir, that no anxiety will be caused, but would ask you to foster me a little assistance."

Lawn Party.

A lawn party will be given next Tuesday night, September 21st, by the Literary Society of the Sacred Heart Church on Hillsboro Street. The lawn will be beautifully decorated, and delightful music will be rendered throughout the evening. Tickets entitling you to ice cream and cake are on sale at Bretch's Bakery at fifteen cents each. The public is most cordially invited.

REIDSVILLE READS RIOT ACT.

The Colored Population Assemble With a Band to Discourse Music for Them.

A special to the Greensboro Telegram from Reidsville says: A race riot at any time yesterday or last night would not have been unexpected. The trouble all arose over a colored barber named Allen refusing to pay his taxes.

It appears that Allen, the barber, has for several years refused to pay his taxes until his wages were garnished on Saturday.

Yesterday about noon the negro stopped Mr. Lamberth on one of the business streets and demanded an explanation. Lamberth told the negro that he was compelled to resort to this means of getting the money, but added that if he would pay his taxes then he could save him the additional costs. Allen gave him no satisfaction, and the collector walked away.

Before he had gone far, however, the negro called him ugly names, and Mr. Keatts, who was standing between Mr. Lamberth and the negro, struck Allen, knocking him down. He then proceeded to administer severe punishment.

In the scuffle Keatts was slightly wounded in the arm with a razor, by Allen or some other negro; he was also hit with a beer bottle by Smith, another negro. At this juncture Mr. Lamberth came to the rescue, and pounded Allen with a stick, and also kept the other negroes at bay.

It is said Allen and several of his race purchased ammunition, and made many ugly threats as to what would happen during the night.

The white citizens of the city armed themselves and were prepared for an outbreak at any time. Twenty five to fifty members of the military companies assembled at either armory, prepared to respond promptly, if needed.

On one street a crowd of negroes, estimated at two or three hundred, were congregated. A colored band was assembled with them, and for some time they continued to make more threats.

The wife of Mr. Lamberth was in a precarious condition last night. She had several nervous convulsions, and the friends of the family were greatly alarmed. Mr. Lamberth has been married only a few months. His wife was formerly a Miss Williamson, of Danville.

Paper Company Case.

As we go to press, the case of Charles H. Belvin and the National Bank of Raleigh vs. The Raleigh Paper Company, et. al., is still in progress before the Referee, A. C. Zollieffer, Esq., of Henderson. Among the counsel are Messrs. Battle & Mordecai, R. O. Burton, Ernest Hayward, Spier Whitaker, R. T. Gray, C. W. Tillet, R. C. Strong, W. S. Watson, MacRae & Day, W. N. Jones, J. W. Hinsdale, F. H. Busbee, T. M. Argo, A. C. Avery, Jones & Boykin, Ed. Chambers Smith, J. B. Batchelor and H. G. Connor.

It would seem that nearly all the legal talent in North Carolina has come together in this one case. Referee Zollieffer says the arguments will be concluded to-day, but if all of the attorneys take a hand, we think it is hardly probable.

A Painful Accident.

A painful accident took place on Fayetteville street yesterday afternoon. Mrs. W. H. Holloman, two other ladies and two little children were driving up the street in a one horse carriage. Just as they were in front of the market a two-horse wagon, which had been used for hauling lumber, turned suddenly, and the long protruding tongue of the wagon entered the carriage. It broke the top, and struck Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt's little girl, Susie May, on the forehead, making an ugly wound. She was carried in the drug store, and the cut was sewed up by Dr. Goodwin. The accident is not as serious as first supposed, and little Susie at last accounts this afternoon is doing very nicely, and will soon be all right again.
