bers was presented in very creditable style. The principal and faculty of the Institution always hold themselves in read-iness to do their share in entertaining strangers who may be within our gates. and the quality of the instruction given and the standard maintained is so high that they are ready in a moment almost to give a varied program which would redound very much to the credit of any chool within the borders of our State. Following is the program: 1. Anthem, "How Lovely are the Mes engers," (Mendelsshon, 1809-1847.), Advanced Class.

A program consisting of sixteen num- purpe Col Harrell was yesterday sending out from the Adjutant General's office the new Manual of Arms to all companies of the State Guard. These regulations go into effect December 15th, and all

Our city's streets have been improved and beautiful and our nearby + park have been created into inviting pleasure grounds.

The health of the town, many thanks to our city health officer, has improved greatly, in fact, there have been fewer cases of diphtheria here in the past four years (since Mr. Sale came into office) than in any previous year of which any record was made. The unhealthy odors in different sections of the city have been dispersed and to-day no cleaner city is to be found.

Our city schools, from which the future administrators of our city's affairs must come, have the largest attendance in their history and the average per cent present shows a phenomenal improvement. This alone should be a source of much gratification.

The private enterprises, throughout the city's limits, have all worked har moniously, with the ctiy fathers and a continuance of such co-operation with a single purpose-the advancement of the city-will give Raleigh an enviable reputation.

CLEANLINESS AND GODLINESS.

Truly cleanliness is next to Godlines and we believe there is not a merchaut on Fayetteville street, who has not at some time thought of those words.

It is unpleasant to call attention to such matters, but would not the many visitors to our city, specially those thoughtful men who are at present meet ing here, think more favorably of us and speak in higher terms of our capital city if every store keeper on the important place the property of said water com-pany upon the tax list and assess against atreets had his sidewalk swept the last thing Saturday night so that on Sunday morning, when every one has on his Sun-day-go-to-meeting the sidewalks of our main street may not mar the beauty of our whole city.

If this were done, those going church would always be forcibly reminded that "Cleanliness is next to Godli-

Alderman E. A. Johnson, speaking for the colored people of Raleigh, said he wanted to subscribe to the resolution of thanks to Mr. Brown, and add that the olored voters had helped in securing the bonds and they desired to aid the city in its progress in every way possible. Several other members of the Board made remarks showing appreciation of Mr. Brown's services.

The report of the Street committee was read by Mr. J. C. Drewry, the chairman of the committee. This excellent report was yesterday published in full in this paper. Mr. Drewry stated in connection with his report that the pipe for draining Johnston street had been ordered and that other improvements would be made on this thorough fare. The physicians reported patients treated, 115 visits made, 35 office consultations, 95 prescriptions filled, 43 patients discharged, 2 continued, sent to hospital, 1 to County Home, died The Sewer committee recommended that a sewer be laid on North Bloodworth street through the lands of Mr. W. C. Stronach, who gives the city right of way. The sewer must not cost more than $800 and be so put in as to connect with a sewer to be put in, at some future time, on East street. According to the report of the Light committee, the lights for the streets, market bouse and other departments, during the past month, cost $665.94. The report of the Water committee was as follows:

"Whereas, a communication has been submitted to the Board of Aldermen from the Raleigh Water Company in which complaint is made concerning water used in sprinkling the streets other than business streets and water used in macadamizing streets, which petition was referred to the Finance committee, "Your committee beg leave to report that the city is ready and willing to pay for water so used at the rates (8 wats per thousand gallons) named in a addressed to the Street Commisunder date of November 19th, and as an offset to such charges the city clerk is hereby instructed to the same the regular rate of taxation as levied by the city, and the tax collector is hereby instructed to collect said tax and the said tax collector is hereby

the orchestra is by far the best thing in that line in the city; they play so well together every one at just the right time as though possessed by one mind, which is the real state of the case, the mind being that of their director.
