Hoyt's "A Milk White Flag" at the Metropolitan Opera House,

A gallant organization is Charles H Hoyt's superb spectacular musical military comedy, "A Milk White Flag," which run all last season at Hoyt's Theatre, New York City, and also run over one hundred nights in Chicago. This emenation from Mr. Hoyt's marvelously fertile brain is a good natured satire on our military organization, and is replete with that humor which is so rampant in the make-up of our boys in blue. The author has seized with ready wit upon the many opportunities for latter is constantly furnishing to the has constructed a comedy more elaborate known to the theatre-goers for us to tive author who has never made a failure; his plays having one and all, in rapid succession, scored emphatic, artistic and financial success, and in "A Milk White Flag," he has out-classed all his sented in the same elaborate manner and with the same marked attention to artistic detail and accessory as all of is other productions. A cast of fifty people, stunning scenery, a military band, make up the aggregation of this great presentation, which will be seen at Metropolitan Opera House to-morrow
