WHAT NEWSPAPER MEN LEARN.

Editors are the first to hear of gossip or scandal, indiscretions of men or women, things unfit for publication, intrigues, clandestine meetings, night buggy rides, young girls gone astray, flirtations of married women, amours of married men, and in fact all the neighborhood scandal. Editors generally know all the naughty doings in a community, no matter how secret. If only half they hear were published, divorce suits would follow in some cases, ostracisms in others, shot-guns and gore, imprisonment, lynchings, desolated homes, shame, humiliation and misery. The editor learns much of the shame and hypocrisy of life, and it is a wonder he believes in anything on earth, in heaven or the hereafter. People who abuse the editor the loudest sometimes owe their standing in society to his forbearance.—Exim Journal.

PINEHURST GOLF LINKS.

A nine hole golf course has been laid out after the famous St. Andrews, near Edinburgh, Scotland. Mr. Tuft is giving his personal attention to the construction and we may expect as fine links as there are in the country. The spot selected is an ideal one, situated upon the hill south of the Village Common. The grounds cover sixty acres of thoroughly cleared land, well fenced in, and covered with a thick growth of rye, which will be kept short by a flock of more than a hundred sheep. A large force of men have been at work on the links, which are now in good condition. Many good golfers are with us and anxiously awaiting the opening day.—Pinehurst Outlook.

The citizens of Concord, N. C., are enjoying a rich robin harvest. The robins roost in the canebreaks where, according to an exchange, "they were so thick that they could be picked off the canes as fast as a man could use his hands. It is said that hunters caught the birds and bagged them just like picking cotton."

Another exchange says they are "thicker than cotton." We shall expect to hear soon that laborers have been employed to pick them at 30 cents per hundred.—Exchange.

Anthony Hope has disavowed the statements recently credited to him in regard to this country. But who cares? All this country asks of Mr. Hope is that he shall continue to write good stories. Nobody cares what he thinks of the country.

A WORD OUT WORD.

(Contributed.)

There is a man in Klondike,
Not upon pleasure bent,
When he writes any kind of head
He uses the word "anent."

It is "anent" this, "anent" that,
And "anent" all around;
Until it has become so common of late,
It's the talk of all the town.

If you wish to see the word used,
Look in the "Klondike Slide,"
And there you'll find it in all its glory—
'Tis the "head" man's greatest pride.

The other papers "copy" it too,
And never give any credit,
They see it in the "Midnight Sun," day,

And swear they never read it.
The printers in that office,
Whenever they see the word,
Talk together in excited groups,
And nothing else is heard.

Would it not be a good thing,
The "common" people to tell,
The meaning of that much-used word,
So they could quote it well.

My friend, if you want to use "anent,"
In its proper place,
Never use it in a "big head,"
Nor write it to save space.

The word "about" or "in regard to,"
Is just as good that that,
And then you will not always cause
The boys to have a "spat."

And so, fare thee well "anent,"
It is time that you were played out,
And I'll write no more about you,
Unless I've got the gout.

PHANUEL'S MORMONS.

Bloodshed Narrowly Averted Last Sunday at the Church.

Several days since we mentioned that two converts had been made to Mormonism in the Phaniel church neighborhood. It seems that these converts came near causing serious trouble in their neighborhood last Sunday. In speaking of the "affair" this week's China Grove Record says:

"The Mormons, it seems, are creating a great deal of disturbance at Phaniel church, near Graeberstown. On last Sunday members of this church and some recent converts to Mormonism were arguing and discussing the Mormon faith and, but for the presence of cooler heads, blood might have been shed upon the church grounds. Our people should not tolerate these Mormons in their midst. Let them be driven out from among us with their pernicious doctrine."

We might say in this connection that the ministers of Salisbury are getting up a tract which sets forth the evils of the Mormon doctrines. These tracts will be distributed to counteract any influence that might be made by the disciples of the "latter day saints."—Salisbury Sun.

DAMPNESS FLUNG OVER US.

The Reverend Ransom Johnson, formerly our Second head Porter, has left us. The Degree of E. A. A. E. conferred by the Garner Station College and the offer of four churches by the Unanimous vote of (all) the Sisters shook his faith in the concern, after humming for two days the following improvisation:

My Bosses sell Pickles
They sell them so low
'They'll never make money
At the Business I know.

He tendered his resignation to take effect so soon as The Rev. Wm. Atwater, the Head Porter, could secure an assistant capable of Singing in unison, "There's a better day a coming," and in accord as to the true interpretation of the Senegambian word "Baptizo."

Dr. Johnson's successor is with us. Like marriages of the present day, he is a failure. His name is Sam, and like other Sams and Psalms, he does not seem to care a wether he is in accord with Melody or noy thing.

Hence, or whence, "Ding the Grammar" (Dry Jones of Petersburg), we are under a cloud of Dampness, stumbling along, selling Groceries at all sorts of prices, sometimes to the advantage of customers.

Now is your time. Go in or come and win, and "Doll tak the blimost."

ROOM WANTED—CROSS & LINEHAN'S Odd Lot February Sale.

Fortunately for us and for all our patrons we got a bulge on business early in the season. We told our friends solid truths, and they believed them and together we made winter goods scatter. We knocked the top off of prices in the beginning and put SUITS, SHOES and MEN'S FURNISHINGS down where everybody could reach them. They moved you let them moved. Our experience is that the right kind of prices will move goods any time, and low prices these days are about the only thing that will move them. We have no big piles of winter goods on our tables, but we have a few suits of the different grades left, and they must get out of our way. Our spring shipments will soon be arriving and these few suits and odd pants must get move on them.

SUITS that at $12.50 were $2.50 too cheap, now go at $10.00; SUITS worth $18.00, our former prices, $15.00 now go for $12.00 33 1-3 per cent off on SHOES and we need all the room possible in our shirt department, for spring goods, so those left on hand now must get a move on them also. From one-half to two-thirds of their former value buys them this week.

As for OVERCOATS what we have left don't cut much figure, but if you hapen to want one to keep out the rigors of early spring come and get it at your own price. These goods are all just as good and stylish as they ever were, but cold weather is leaving us and they must leave with it.

CROSS & LINEHAN

Up-to-date Clothiers

"Swept-Down" Prices!

Stock-taking ought to interest you as much as it does us. It means an unlimited use of the "broom." "All the broken lines," "odds and ends," are swept together, and you help yourselves at prices that pay no attention to cost, let alone to profit. We've taken stock. Are all through. We've "matched up" our entire suit stock. We find 250 Coats and Vests that have no pants that match 'em. The prices they are marked wouldn't pay for the cloth. Both sacks and frocks, double and single breasted, in the collection. Some of the very best styles of the choicest patterns we have had this season.

ANOTHER FIND—400 PAIRS OF PANTS.

They lost their Coats and Vests. What we've done with the price you can see at glance. Every pair a bargain.

BE SURE TO COME THIS WEEK.

If you want a Suit or Overcoat at 25 per cent off. This is the last week. 50-Cent Club Ties and Bows for 25c. Be quick for your selection. All the mid-season requirements and niceties are here. Also some of the advanced styles for spring. Glad to have you see 'em.

S. & D. BERWANGER.

Always in the Lead.
