NOT ALONE.

President Wilson is not the only member of the administration to break precedents and establish those which will be of benefit to those effected. Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of the Navy Daniels have manifested great common sense in their direction of the affairs of the departments of which they are the heads. They have abolished absurd and useless regulations and submitted rules which are practical and which tend to the improvement of the service. Neither Mr. Garrison nor Mr. Daniels is a military man, but the reforms they have wrought have been ample proof of the wisdom of having civilians at the head of these departments instead of one who is eaten up with the importance of small things.

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Make Your Blood Pure and Immune With S. S. S.

In thousands of instances the most virulent types of blood troubles have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

And now they have introduced what is called the one-step dance. The one-legged man can dance it to perfection.

And now William J. Bryan confesses to suffering with stage fright. He must live in a state of perpetual shivers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Tonic and alterative. Increases strength. Restores healthy functions. No alcohol. Sold for 60 years.

The midwinter reduction sales remind us again that Spring isn't so far removed.

Charles H. Moyer is surely having his share of probing. The doctors probed his wound and the grand jury is probing his deportation.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

Backache, Rheumatism, Kidneys and Bladder.

he says, "If officers would not indulge in public debate or discussion, or in any sort of a public propaganda, with respect to army matters of a debatable nature."
Surely this is the right move. It is doubtless an indirect outgrowth of the now famous dinner of the Carabao which clearly brought out the need of such a step. Army officers should not question the orders of their superiors; that is the first thing taught a soldier. It is not an edifying spectacle to see the actions of men who have made a life study of problems criticised by men half their age who have only scratched the surface of the subject which they are discussing.

THE SWORD OF ROBERT E. LEE.

(By Father Ryan.)
Forth from its scabbard, pure and bright,
Flashed the sword of Lee!
Far in the front of the deadly fight,
Hig o'er the brave, in the cause of right,
Its stainless sheen, like a beacon light,
Led us to victory.

Out of its scabbard, where full long—
It slumbered peacefully—
Roused from its rest by the battle-
songs,
Shielding the feeble, smiting the strong,
Guarding the right, and avenging the wrong—
Gleamed the sword of Lee!

Forth from its scabbard, high in air,
Beneath Virginia's sky—
And they who saw it gleaming there
And knew who bore it, knelt to swear
That where that sword led they would dare
To follow and to die.

Out of its scabbard! Never hand
Waved sword from stain as free,
Nor purer sword led braver hand,
Nor braver hand has a cause so grand,
Nor cause, a chief like Lee!

Forth from its scabbard! how we prayed
That sword might victor be!
And when our triumph was delayed,
And many a heart grew sore afraid,
We still hope on, while gleamed the blade
Of noble Robert Lee!

Forth from its scabbard! all in vain!
Forth flashed the sword of Lee!
'Tis shrouded now in its sheath again
It sleeps the sleep of our noble slain
Defeated, yet without a stain,
Proudly and peacefully.

Insurance companies will not accept any one affected with Lung Trouble. The night sweats, a remedy for Throat and Lung Trouble, it has successfully passed the medical test of insurance companies.

Joe Cannon says he is not going to die while he can see anybody else living. Joe must expect to either become blind or reach a green old age.
