The report was prepared under the direction of W. M. Steuart and the figures are highly gratifying to the outhern states, which are far in the van.

The report shows that in 1912 there were 26,648 lumber mills operating in the United States, but while this number was in excess, of that of the previous year, it was more than 2,000 less than those running in 1910. The total amount of lumber in thousand feet board measure produced by these mills in 1912 was 39,158,414. The lake states showed that decrease which is annually in evidence owngi to the failing of lumber material in that region, but the cuts increased to a remarkable extent in the Southern and Pacific states.

In the census of 1900 the Southern States produced 38.7 per cent of the entire cut in the United States; in 1907 they produced 45.7 per cent, and

His Stomach Troubles Over. Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible.
