VOTE ON TOLLS REPEAL BILL EXPECTED TODAY

All Ears Strained for Clark's
Speech in Congress
Against Measure

THE PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT

President Declares That Insultation
Made by Representatives in Reference to Administration Activities Highly Insultive.

Washington, March 30.—On the eve of the vote in the House of Representatives on the repeal of American toll exemption in the Panama Canal act Congress today was completely absorbed in the controversy. Verbal artillery thundered throughout the day in both House and Senate.

While opposing forces were clashing in oratorical flights at the capitol, President Wilson took occasion to discuss the all-engrossing situation with callers, expressing keen regret that what had promised to be a dignified contest over principles had degenerated into a fight upon the administration. While on the subject President Wilson characterized as a "crowning insult of a number of insults" in the debate, the declaration of Representative Knowland, of California, that the administration had made a deal to repeal the tolls exemption with Sir William Terrell, secretary of Sir Edward Grey, British secretary for foreign affairs.

With the final vote on the Sims repeal bill in the House scheduled for late tomorrow, interest in the controversy revived, the closing speech of Speaker Clark in opposition to the repeal serving as the chief objective point of anticipation. Little doubt as to the result of the vote on the bill is entertained by any one the majority for the repeal being variously estimated at from 30 to 75 votes.

All ears will be strained for the Speaker tomorrow and there is much speculation as to the course of his attack on the bill will take. His friends do not expect him to attack the President. Some Democrats believe that he will not refrain, however, from allusions to political entanglements.

Discussion of the issue in the Senate today was enlivened by Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, who pleaded for the President's cause, urging, however, a compromise giving the President authority to suspend tolls.

Mr. Wilson let it be known that he was unquestionably opposed to any compromise or amendments, such as have been proposed in the Senate. He is for a straight repeal without equivocation.

MILLINERY OPENINGS

Notwithstanding the rather cool temperature with which the day was ushered in, the Spring Openings in Millinery at Castex & Co's and at Miss Pearl Creech's were well attended, and once within these emporiums of Dame Fashion's domain it was as if the fairy fingers of Spring had fashioned the flowers and tinted the delicate colorings of ribbon and feather and fruit and beads, for surely was all brightness and beauty, and when to these were added, in all their matchless beauty, the fair femininity of Goldsboro what mattered it how the weather was without—"it will be sunshine tomorrow."

But, really, if it had not been for Castex & Co's opening today, we believe it would have snowed. The firm must have mislaid their rabbit foot, or else the weather man is off his job, and should be jacked up.

However, as we have said, the cool weather had no perceptible effect on the attendance today at both Miss Creech's and at Castex & Co's Openings, and the beautiful displays of Millinery at Creech's and Millinery and Dress Goods at Castex & Co's were enjoyed by tides of fair visitors throughout the day.

WEATHER FORECAST

HUMPHREY-EDWARDS BEAUTIFUL AND IMPRESSIVE HOME WEDDING THIS MORNING.

This morning at 11 o'clock, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Edwards, on William street, their lovely and amiable daughter Miss Bessie and one of Goldsboro's most admirable young men, Mr. Chas. Aycock Humphrey, youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Humphrey, were united in the holy bond of wedlock in the presence of only the members of the immediate families of the contracting parties and a small number of special friends. Rev. H. D. Wilson, pastor of St. Paul M. E. church, being the officiating minister.

The home had been, by loving hands artistically adorned for the happy occasion, and in both the present room, where a galaxy of beautiful and useful gifts of teeming variety were displayed, and in the ceremonial parlor palms and ferns and flowers and trailing smilax evidenced the interest that so many friends had centered in the event now at hand.

The wedding march, at the appointed hour, was rendered by Miss Lena Griffin, a cousin of the bride, and its first notes were the signal for the entrance of Little Miss Helene Griffin and Master Matt Ransom Gardner, cousin and nephew of the bride, who coyly took their places on either side of the waiting minister, who stood before a pannel of tall palms with a large center of white carnations; they were followed by the Maid of Honor Miss Hattie Griffin, also a cousin of the bride, and then came the groom with his oldest brother, Mr. Will L. Humphrey, as best man, followed by the lovely bride with her father, who placed her hand in that of the waiting groom, and the twain then faced the officiating minister to plight their mutual troth, within the touching of the bride's parents and loving kindred of both that gave additional sentiment to the superlatively happy, triumphant moment in the lives of the handsome young groom and his lovely bride as they spoke the mutual solemn words that effected the eternal locking of their lives together—the sacramental merging of "two souls with but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one."

It was a very beautiful service, rendered the more impressive by its quiet spiritual composure and solemn simplicity.

The fair and popular young bride never looked more lovely than in her becoming going away suit of blue with traveling hat to match, and the handsome groom was the impersonation of happiness.

Immediately after the ceremony and the receiving of the loving good wishes of their kindred and friends the happy young couple were driven to the Union Station, where they took the north bound train for a trip to Washington, New York and other points of interest north, and after their honeymoon they will be at home to their friends in this city at Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Brinkley's, on West Centre street south.

POLICE BACK DOWN.

Editor Argus:—This morning police officer Bailey said if I would come to the city hall at 1 p. m. he would go with me to see 40 violations in 40 minutes.

I went, but he backed down, I challenged others there, they declined—I left them, and with J. R. Jones, correspondent of Raleigh News and Observer, Greensboro News and Wilmington Star, in seven (7) minutes showed him forty seven (47) gates swung on the outside, contrary to law; besides dogs and chickens galore. Dog, gate, and chicken laws are not worth the paper written on.

I (as many others) would like to know what these laws were made for.

NO NEWS FROM THE FRONT

FRIENDS OF BOTH SIDES ON BORDER ARE AWAITING OUTCOME OF FIGHTING AT TORREON.

Juarez, March 30.—The rebel and Federal forces at Torreon are still engaged in battle, it was learned tonight. This information came from Roberto V. Pessira, confidential agent of the constitutionalists in the United States, who recently arrived here from Washington.

Eagle Pass, Texas, March 30.—Refugees who reached Piedras Negras, Mexico, from the vicinity of Monclova today, reported that Gen. Murguia's command of Constitutionalists had intercepted several bands of fugitive Federal volunteers from Torreon and killed them to the last man. No estimate was given of the casualties.

Murguia is operating between Monterey and Torreon and is reported to have isolated the Torreon garrison from all communication with Mexico City, and with Federal forces at Monterey and Saltillo.

There has been no communication between Eagle Pass and Torreon over the government telegraph lines for five days. All railroads into Torreon from the east have been cut. Gen. Joaquin Mass, who went to reinforce Gen. Velasco at Torreon, made the trip overland in armored automobiles with his 800 men.

Murguia commands a strong force of Constitutionalists which, while taking no part in the attack on Torreon has been working to prevent any assistance reaching the Federalists in the beleaguered city. He recently captured Monclova, confiscating large supplies in the railroad warehouses there and proceeding south, and communication with Monterey from Piedras Negras at Espinazo, ten miles above Reata, a junction point leading to both Monterey and Torreon.

"ROSE MAID" COMING

GREATEST MUSICAL ATTRACTION GOLDSBORO HAS EVER ENJOYED; HERE APRIL 14.

Every visitor to Broadway last season returned home whistling the "Rose Song," or some other catchy melody from "The Rose Maid," which is coming to the Messenger Opera House, Tuesday night April 14.

The pretty opera ran for 200 nights before New York could drink its fill of the sweet enduring melodies. This new work proved so captivating in its music, so full of romance and laughter and so refreshing in its pictorial features that it was hailed as a prettier work than its sister production, "The Spring Maid," the previous year.

On account of "The Rose Maid's" many charming features, it is difficult to name anyone in particular as excelling all others. The opera was considered so much above similar offerings of recent years that it became the talk of New York. For six months the Globe Theatre was packed to the doors. Music lovers were so eager to enjoy the piece that when other New York theatres were put out of commission by the hot weather, The Globe was forced to remain open to accommodate the crowd. "The Rose Maid" is the first opera since the "Merry Widow" to score a record-breaking, all Summer run.

Manager Frank C. Payne is now presenting this splendid production while its songs are still popular, and before its wealth of comedy, dances and fun have been cheapened by crude imitations. The American production was made under the personal direction of the gifted composer, Bruno Granichataedten, another of that coterie of Viennese musicians who have set the world a-waltzing with their tuneful measures.

"The Rose Maid" begins and ends with a romping scene of musical gaiety, while the intervening two and one-half hours are filled with dainty waltzes, two-step, tango and "turkey trots" that start the toes tapping. Its brilliant and concerted numbers rouse the audience to volumes of applause.

The chorus has been described as "a rosebud of modish girls with every girl a fashion plate." The production is said to be more spectacular and impressive than those generally furnished a light opera success. The company coming to this city is the only organization appearing in "The Rose Maid," so that music lovers may be sure of hearing the opera presented at its best.

Killed in the Night "OLD DOC"

Corn Cure does for corns!
It never has failed—it never irritates—but "OLD DOC" gets the corn every time.

You forget your limp after the first application—a few more and the corn has dried and shriveled up, root and all—and is GONE forever.

No plasters to make the corn bulge and pain—no drawing, irritating salve that sends those sharp pains way to the ends of your fingers and that eat down into the surrounding healthy flesh—nothing to stick to the sock or stocking—no bandages—no razor—no picking or digging. "OLD DOC" never attacks healthy flesh—it goes after the disease, the corn—and GETS IT quick!

If every man, woman and child in the world would use "OLD DOC" Corn Cure tonight, there WOULD BE NO CORNS tomorrow! It's equally deadly to warts, callouses and bunions.

A positive guarantee of "no corn or remedy back" goes with every bottle. Your druggist has "OLD DOC" Corn Cure, or will get it for you at 15c and 25c per bottle. If not, send to "OLD DOC Co.," Dept. 316-GB, Greene Building, Covington, Ky.

"OLD DOC" Compound corrects the after-effects of over-eating—working—drinking—or smoking. 25c and 50c at your druggists.

FREE!—With each purchase of "OLD DOC" Compound or "OLD DOC" Corn Cure, a COMBINATION ICE PIC K and CORK-SCREW ICE PARCEL POST CALCULATOR. These articles would cost at least 25c if purchased through the regular channels of trade and we are giving them away absolutely FREE to quickly introduce our wonderful remedy here. PREMIER ASQUITH FINDS A SOLUTION

Will Add Burden of War Department to Other Duties

RESIGNS FROM HOUSE

Announcement of Premier Comes as a Surprise to all Parties—Irish Members are Letting British Fight It Out.

London, March 30.—After all the many solutions of the government crisis, which had been proposed and discussed, Premier Asquith announced a solution to the House of Commons today which none of the prophets had suspected or even expected. The Premier himself, will assume the burden of the war office in addition to his other and almost crushing duties. He will resign from the House at this critical stage, when the second reading of the home bill is about to be taken up and will appeal for re-election to his constituents in East Fife, Scotland, within a few days.

No member of the Irish Nationalist party, uttered a word in the House. The Irishmen are letting the English fight it out alone. Premier Asquith Viscount Morley, Col. Seely and General French and Ewart all visited the King during the day.

Field Marshal Sir John French, chief of the imperial general staff and Gen. Sir John Ewart, adjutant general, declined to withdraw their resignations in spite of the army order issued Friday, which Viscount Haldane cleverly framed as a platform on which the generals might stand with consistency and honor.

It thus became impossible for Col. J. E. B. Seely, who was co-signor with them of the assurances to Brig. Gen. Gough, that the army would not be used to suppress the Ulster opposition to home rule, to retain the secretaryship of war. His resignation, therefore, was accepted, after he had been for some days under fire from the newspapers of his own party which insisted that he must go.

Nurse Proclaims Skin Cure

Myrtle Hahn Says D. D. D. Prescription is Worth Rockefeller's Millions to Her.

"Ten years I suffered with eczema—three years of that time I could not appear in public. My entire body was covered with the disease. I could not eat. I could not sleep. I could not live. I have at last found the great cure. Prescription D. D. D. My body is clean, smooth. If there were one bottle only of D. D. D. in the world and I had it, Mr. Rockefeller's millions could not buy the golden fluid."

Nurse Myrtle Hahn (in care Old Ladies' Home, Durham, N. C.)

How about you?
If you have any skin blemish or a little rash, do not let it develop into something more serious. Remember D. D. D. Prescription has been recognized for fifteen years as the standard skin remedy. It always helps, and if used according to directions, it should cure in a short while.

All druggists sell this standard remedy, but if you come to us, we will offer you the first full size bottle with the guarantee that unless it stops the itch at once we will refund the purchase price. Ask also about the equally efficient skin soap.
