TAR HEELS ARE PROM- INENTLY MENTIONED

Action of General Assembly on Primary Law Will Have Much to Do With Candidates

TO WAIT ON LEGISLATURE

Maxton Man Has Been Mentioned For Nomination, But Would Not Be Candidate If A. W. McLean, Also of Robinson, Makes Race

Washington, Jan. 11.—Governatorial candidates for the 1916 race are following President Wilson's Mexican policy of "watchful waiting," according to A. J. McKinnon, of Maxton, himself prominently mentioned as a candidate to succeed Governor Craig. Mr. McKinnon spent the day here after visiting neighboring cities.

In other words, with the exception of Attorney General Bickett, whom every one is anxious to mention as playing a "watchful waiting" game to see what the legislature will do with the primary law, the candidates are waiting for the legislature to act. Mr. McKinnon said that his friends have urged him to run, but said he was waiting to see if there was any real sentiment for him outside of his personal friends. He said, of course, there would not be two candidates from his county. As he lives in the same county with A. W. McLean, this is taken to mean that if McLean decides to run he will get out.

Young George Connor, son of the federal judge of Wilson, is one of the latest names to be added to the list of candidates. Several gentlemen who have been mentioned in the last few days as candidates would make a good run. Names mentioned are General Carr, A. W. McLean, Robert N. Page, Lieutenant Governor Slaughter, A. J. McKinnon, T. W. Bickett, Judge Allen and Col. W. H. Osborn.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has also been mentioned. It is not believed that he will run for an office, but he must depend upon the sentiment of the people to get it. Certainly not so soon as the 1916 election.

Nine out of every ten men who discuss the gubernatorial race say that the people want a business man for their next governor, not a politician. Colonel Osborn is one of the best business men in the state, but it is doubted if he would consent to make the race. His work as commissioner of internal revenue has been the subject of comment by every government official from President Wilson down. Every department has been put on a business basis and politics has been eliminated as much as an enemy would permit.

Senator Overman has been notified that a civil service examination for title attorney, formerly record examiner, will be held at Greensboro, Salisbury, Goldsboro, Charlotte, Durham, Asheville, Wilmington and Washington February 3. The salary will be from $1,500 to $2,000.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.

The undersigned has been authorized by Mr. Jno. O. Royall, of this city, to advertise for sale his Fruit and Confectionery business located on East Centre street, next to Creech's jewelry store, this sale to include stock, furniture, fixtures, soda water fountain and good will. For terms apply to E. W. Hill, Atty. Goldsboro, N. C.

It provides its own capital and therefore all its savings, profits or surplus, however designated, are returned to the holders of the policies instead of on stock. TIMELY AND PRACTICAL

Editor Argus:—Recent articles in your paper dealing with the deficiencies in the physical condition and cleanliness of the streets in our city have been both true and timely.

To say that many of our unpaved streets are a disgrace to our city is not an exaggeration, and that our paved streets have a neglected and untidy appearance most of the time is equally true.

The methods employed in working our streets are antiquated, inefficient and expensive. One needs no better proof of this than to watch the snail-like, intermittent efforts of the street hands to throw a few shovels of dirt when a topic of conversation is exhausted and they tire of leaning on their shovel handles.

I have seen in up-to-date towns no larger than Goldsboro a gutter scraper mounted on wheels and drawn by a pair of horses that would do more work in two hours than our street hands do in two weeks. The blade or scraper is mounted in such a way that it extends beyond the wheels of the carriage and has a vertical roller at the end which turns against the curb stone, allowing the scraper to operate close to the curb. It is not an expensive machine, is easily adjusted to meet any requirements, is rapid, efficient and economical to operate.

The trouble with our dirt streets is that they haven't sufficient crown to shed water. When a period of heavy rains comes, instead of the water running off it ponds on the streets, soaks into the surface and is held there until churned into deep mud by constant traffic. Under these conditions many holes and deep mire are an inevitable result.

With such a machine as I mention, the gutters could always be kept open, and by keeping the streets crowned there would never be such conditions as now follow every heavy rainfall. This could be done at a minimum expense. The streets could be kept in good condition in a fraction of the time it would take day labor to do it, and without greater expense per day than under the present method. The money saved in employing more rapid and efficient methods could then be spent in keeping the streets clean and sanitary.

You can go through our city today and see leaves, papers and every imaginable kind of trash on the streets, and a stranger is impressed far more by such untidiness than those of us who have become so used to such conditions that we accept them as a matter of course. As to our paved streets, we are justly proud of them, but even these become littered and untidy in a short time and should be swept oftener than they are.

Our street crossings should also receive attention. Following this last rainy period how many times have you seen ladies gather up their skirts and attempt to pick their way across a muddy street, jumping over a puddle of water in their path only to land on the other side in mud up to their in-steps?

Let us get our streets in good shape, then let our city set the pace for tidiness by keeping its property clean and sanitary. If this be done, our citizens will then be prompted to take greater pride in the appearance of their private property.

COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Goldsboro, N. C., Jan. 4, 1915.
The Board of Education of Wayne County met in regular quarterly session today, all the members present—Col. Jos. E. Robinson, W. F. English and Barnes Aycock.

The special business before the board was the annual apportionment of the county public school fund. The apportionment is made in accordance with the school law, not on a per capita basis to the township, but upon the basis of placing enough money to the credit of each school in the County to give all the schools the same length of term. The Board apportioned sufficient funds to run all the schools four months, allowing also for incidental expenses.

The apportionment follows:
For teaching and incidentals, $29,225
Set aside for building fund, 3,000
Falling Creek High school, 400
Seven Springs High school, 400
Pikeville High School, 500
Contingent Fund, 4,000

Total, $37,525
The apportionment of the State Equalizing Fund will be made in February, which apportionment will give Wayne County an additional month of school, making a five months' term for all the schools of the county.

The Board orders the following bills to be paid: A. T. Griffin Mfg. Co., for folding doors for No. 6, white, New Hope, W. S. Lane, $144 for school site for district No. 6, white, Nahunta. $10 was allowed Daniel's Chapel school to be used to employ an assistant teacher for said school, the Betterment Association furnishing the balance of salary.

Mr. J. M. Parks is authorized to repair colored school No. 2 Saulston.

STATE WIDE PRIMARY.

BHM Is Looked For Within a Few More Days.

Raleigh, Jan. 11.—The state-wide primary bill, forecast for this week has not been offered in either house of the general assembly today, but the rumors fly thick that the measure will make a start within the next three or four days.

A dull record has been the fifth of the days. Local bills were offered generously for an hour or less and adjournment came until tomorrow morning. Speaker Wooten named a formidable list of committees but the all-important one, the chairmanship of the finance organization, is yet in the speaker's creation.

Henry A. Page and R. A. Doughton are the only members seriously discussed for this position, but there are other members with large interests and varied experience upon whom the speaker might decide. The two find many points of disagreement in their views and in the fight to end the leasing of convicts to railroads for the payment in stock, Page and Doughton are everlastingly apart.

This issue looks now to be one of the sharpest before the general assembly. Doughton and his western colleagues are united in their demand that the state live up to its existing contracts and give to the western part of the state the same aid that it has given other sections. Mr. Doughton declares that his county is reduced to commerce almost solely with Virginia points and that lack of articulation with the middle and eastern parts of the state hurts all parts of the state.

In the house today Representative J. J. Laughinghouse, of Pitt, offered a bill taxing the owners of pistols the same amount as the poll in their respective counties and fixing a minimum fine of $50 or imprisonment of six months upon all persons guilty of carrying these weapons. He declared, after the adjournment of the house, that this is offered to protect officers in the eastern part of the state who seem to have no chance with pistol-toters. Captain Laughinghouse, who used to be superintendent of the state prison, observes the striking proportion of the pistol-toting criminals. He would punish the owner of the pistols with machinery now in the law when such owners failed to list the weapon as property.

LINES SHARPLY DRAWN FOR BATTLE IN HOUSE

Mondell's Resolution For Woman's Suffrage Comes to a Vote Today. Big Crowd Is Expected.

Washington, Jan. 11.—Lines were drawn today for the battle in the house tomorrow on the Mondell resolution proposing an amendment to the federal constitution guaranteeing the right to vote to all citizens regardless of sex. The resolution will be voted on before the house adjourns tomorrow.

Big delegations of supporters and opponents of woman suffrage already are in Washington. The anti-suffragists claim the resolution not only will fail to receive the two-thirds vote of the house necessary for its submission to the states, but that it will get only about a one-third vote. Suffragists claim to have about a majority of the house behind the measure.

Under an agreement reached today the house will meet at 11 o'clock instead of noon. A special rule for consideration of the suffrage resolution will be brought in and it is expected the rule will be adopted after a brief debate. Then will follow six days of discussion of the resolution. The doorkeeper and sergeant-at-arms of the house tonight made arrangements for handling the crowd. Galleries will be opened at 10 o'clock, and extra doorkeepers will be on hand to see that spectators are admitted in order.

BOARD OF HEALTH MEETS.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman F. F. Ormond, and upon motion E. T. Atkinson was re-elected secretary.

The purpose of the meeting was to elect a county physician to succeed Dr. J. R. Parker, whose term expires today.

After considering all applications, on motion of Mayor J. R. Higgins, Dr. R. W. Spicer was unanimously elected county physician for a term of two years. Dr. J. R. Parker was not a candidate for re-election.

Dr. P. W. Covington was elected Supervisor of Community Health Work, and Messrs. R. M. Bridges and Kolby Curtis were elected health officers for Rosewood and Smith's Chapel communities.

STOCK LAW QUESTION AGAIN.

The question of stock law or no stock law which has been so freely agitated since the law making Duplin county stock law territory was enacted by the last Legislature, is now as live an issue as it has ever been, and it is almost certain that the session of the Legislature which met Wednesday, will again consider the matter, and this time give the people of the county an opportunity to vote on the question, which is the part that has caused the high feeling that has existed, and which played such an important part in the election in November. Several meetings were held by the anti-stock law people, and the question of placing an anti-stock law ticket out was very strongly considered, but the Democrats incorporated a plank in their platform covering the matter, and petitions were placed in circulation with the promise that if the Democratic nominees for Senator and Representative were elected, and petitions properly signed by a majority of the qualified voters of the county were presented to them, they would secure an enabling act to submit the question to the vote of the people. About 2,000 signatures have been secured to this petition.
