GERMAN PREPAREDNESS.

Reports of a food shortage in Germany seem to have been greatly exaggerated. A newspaper correspondent, writing from Munich, declares that the German people are eating more food and at less cost than the people of Italy or Austria-Hungary. Pictures of enormous supplies of food stored in Germany have recently been published in American newspapers with the evident approval of German authorities. Also the price of bread has been reduced by a government edict. Although the Germans say that England's policy of starving the German people is responsible for the reprisals on English commerce by submarines, the prospect of a famine in the fatherland seems extremely remote.

In Munich, states the correspondent, it is possible to dine better for less money in half a dozen restaurants than in a number of other countries he has visited. For about 62 cents in American money one may enjoy an excellent meal. In an American restaurant a similar sum would not go far past the soup course on the bill of fare. For this amount the correspondent had a good soup, fish with potatoes, an entree of meat with potatoes and vegetables and a "toothsome dessert." The war bread of Munich is said to be more palatable than that of Vienna and more nutritious than that of the Austrian Tyrol. It is significant that Germany and Austria are not sharing their supplies of food.

Museums and opera houses continue open in Munich, as well as in Berlin. A large colony of Americans are finding the city a very pleasant refuge during the war. The number of American prima donnas has not decreased. One of these singers, Miss Edith Walker, is reported to have said: "We have plenty to eat and Americans here are satisfied with conditions. The Germans from the beginning have treated us with the greatest consideration."

Evidence accumulates that the remarkable German people are not disturbed by the tremendous war they are waging against a large part of Europe.

Bilious Attacks.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. They only cost a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

Germany is no doubt wondering what Bryan saw in that note.

CONSTIPATION CURED OVERNIGHT

Bryan probably thinks he put the one to reason.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

The many recoveries brought about by Eckman's Alternative are attracting wide attention. Read about this case—
33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.
"Gentlemen—I was taken sick in November, 1908. I grew steadily worse. Had two consultations. The verdict was the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. I began your Alternative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever." (Abbreviated.)

Looking around us we see many persons in middle life struggling along with poor vision, who might be enjoying normal sight today if they had consulted a competent Optometrist and worn glasses when there was yet time to preserve the sight. A defect in the sight is not as a rule a disease of the eye, so often it is a condition which the proper glasses will not only relieve, but many times entirely cure, sight is restored, eyes are made strong, headaches disappear, the nervous strain is relieved and the eyes are saved perhaps from blindness. Visit my office and learn more about correcting imperfect sight.
