AT THE ACME TODAY.

Today the Acme theatre offers a 2-part Gold Seal comedy and this is something rare for that company to put forth and judging from the dramatic seen before by this brand of films it goes without saying that it will be a good one. In this we see a delightful picture of Broadway life, entitled "Roof Gardens of New York". In this picture is featured Cleo Madison, Ray Hanford, and A. Moon (and he shines too). While they are ably assisted by Jean Hathaway and S. J. Blingham.

Also for the day will be seen a Nestor comedy featuring the that incomparable trio of fun makers, Eddie Lyons, Lee Moran and clever Victoria Forde, in a spaghetti comedy full of macaronical laughs—"Tony, the Wop"—also a Laemmle drama featuring M. K. Wilson, Marc Robbins and Olive Golden, "In the Grip of the Law."

Europe will soon be fighting for cash.

HIS REST WAS BROKEN.

O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "I was bothered with pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken by frequent action of my kidneys.
