THREE DAYS ONLY REMAIN

Are You Awake to the Passing Opportunity?

SUBJECT OF TONIGHT'S SERMON

Three Great Sermons Preached To Listening Multitude by Dr. Ray Palmer in First Baptist Church Yesterday.

Sunday was one of the greatest days in the history of the First Baptist church of Goldsboro. Dr. Ray Palmer preached three sermons.

At 11 a. m. a splendid congregation heard the evangelist's sermon: "The Wonders of the Word." It was pronounced by those who heard it, one of the greatest sermons they ever heard, on the Word of God.

Prof. Babbitt sang with telling effect "The Old Fireside."

At 3:30 another great congregation assembled at the church. Prof. Babbitt sang "His Eye is on the Sparrow." Dr. Palmer's sermon on "The Crown of Gold" was declared to be one of the greatest of the series.

At 7:30 p. m. the beautiful auditorium, the Sunday School room and all the galleries, were crowded. It was perhaps the greatest congregation ever assembled in the church. Prof. Babbitt sang "Make Me Pure," a beautiful solo. Dr. Palmer preached on "The Unpardonable Sin."

The preacher for one hour held the people in the grip of truth and brought them face to face with the awful fact that many do commit the unpardonable sin. The sermon was packed full of theology, psychology, practical demonstration, experience, history, statistics, and luminous illustrations.

The speaker proved by a rising vote of the congregation that 95 per cent of all Christians present became Christians before they were 20 years of age. The preacher said he had made the same test in most of the states of America and that it invariably turned out the same way.

The evangelist declared that if one is not saved at 25, he has only one chance in ten thousand, of ever being saved; if one is not saved at thirty-five, he has one chance in fifty thousand, of being saved; if one is forty-five unsaved, he stands one chance in two hundred thousand of being saved; if one is fifty-five and still not a Christian, he has one chance in three hundred thousand of coming to God; if one is sixty-five without Christ, he has one chance of being saved in five hundred thousand, and if one is seventy-five years old, without God, that man has only one chance in seven hundred and fifty thousand of becoming a Christian.

"There are four wires strung between every soul and God—Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, the Bible and Conscience. When these wires are cut, then hope dies, the dead line has been crossed.

"Man may lose his capacity for God. Darwin admitted in old age that he had lost his capacity for music; there are fish in the Mammoth Cave which have no eyes; the nerve that remains indicates that they once had eyes, but having no use for them, they ceased to be; and so man, by continual resistance, may lose his capacity for God.

"I heard a minister say, 'A man committed the unpardonable sin; and afterward repented and begged God for mercy, but that God laughed in his face.' Such a statement was absolutely false. God is a God of infinite love. He is the same yesterday, today and forever.

"When one has committed the unpardonable sin, it is not that God has changed, but the soul has lost its power to say yes to God.

"When one has sinned away his day of grace, it may show itself by open blasphemy. A man, during the Black Hawk war, cursed God, and fell dead in his tracks. A fellow said: 'Boys I am going to skate to hell in ten minutes." In ten minutes he struck an air-hole and went down. A sea captain said: "I shall run this ship to hell in ten minutes." In that time the ship struck a rock and the captain was lost.

"When French Oliver was going to a place to conduct meetings the committee was lining up the businessmen for the revival. They went to one store and asked the proprietor to stand by the work. He said 'No, sir. If Jesus Christ should come in that door, I should spit in His face.

"When I was conducting meetings in Pony, Mont., my friend, the Rev. Stancliff, of the Presbyterian church, called to see a bitter infidel. The man picked up a Bible on the table and cursing it, hurled it vehemently against the wall.

"My friend, Dr. Bang, of Santa Cruz, Cal., told me that when he was a boy in his father's home in Illinois, John Paine, a cousin of Thomas Paine, boarded at their home. They were talking at the table about God. Paine exclaimed: 'I have as much power as your God has.' The next moment Paine threw his hands to his head and cried, 'My head! Oh, my head!' He was carried to his bed where he raved for three days, crying all the while, 'The devils are taking my soul! The devils are taking my soul! The devils are taking my soul!'

"Oh, sinner," said the preacher, "be ware of the spirit of blasphemy, lest you commit the unpardonable sin.

"Men may commit this sin and not realize it," said the evangelist.

"There is a time I know not when,
A place I know not where,
That marks the destiny of men,
To glory or despair.

There is a line by us unseen,
That crosses every path,
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and His wrath.

To cross that limit is to die,
To die as if by stealth;
It need not quench the beaming eye,
Nor pale the glow of health.

Whence is that mysterious bound,
By mortal pathway crossed?
Beyond which God Himself hath sworn
That he who goes is lost."

The preacher closed with very striking illustrations, showing the absolute importance of forsaking sin, and turning to God now. A large number came forward at the close; one person united with the church. Three joined in the morning.

Dr. Palmer will preach tonight on: "A Thief Crucified But Crowned." In this sermon the doctor, will discuss the doctrines of soul-sleeping, purgatory, baptismal regeneration, instantaneous regeneration and God's sovereign grace.

Only three more days of the special meetings.
Let everybody attend tonight.

WAR SUMMARY

Twenty thousand unwounded German prisoners and an unestimated number of dead and wounded on both sides is the toll taken in the first two days drive of the Anglo-French forces who have begun a great offensive movement along the western battle line, which extends from the North Sea to the Swiss frontier. Two distinctive operations are under way, one north of Arras and the other in the Champagne region, while there has been an incessant bombarding along almost the entire front. Both the British and French have been successful, carrying trenches extending over a distance of twenty miles and a death varying up to two and a half miles. It is officially reported both from Paris and London that the advance is still being continued, and that the ground gained in a large measure has been held and consolidated.

Berlin admits the retirement of the German forces at various points but minimizes the result of the engagements.

LAID TO REST.

Burial of Mrs. Mike Heinman Here Yesterday Morning.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mike Heinman, whose death occurred some days ago at the home of a sister, Mrs. Meyers, in Los Angeles, Cal., where she had recently gone on a visit from her own home in New York, where she resided with her daughter, Mrs. Jos. New, were laid to rest in the Hebrew plot in Willow Dale cemetery yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, beside her late husband, who preceded her to the grave 40 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Heinman at the time of his death being residents of Princeton, N. C., and formerly of Goldsboro, and cordially remembered by many of our older and oldest citizens, and of these quite a number were present at yesterday's sad obsequies, the services being impressively conducted by Rabbi Mayerberg.

Those from a distance here to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Jos. New, of New York; her son Mr. D. G. Heinman, of Texas; her sisters, Mrs. L. L. Otterberg, of Norfolk, and Mrs. J. B. Smith, of Princeton; her brothers Messrs. John Ledbetter, of Princeton and W. B. Ledbetter, of Fayetteville.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Adolph Ottinger, Leslie Well, M. N. Epstein, Julius Cohen, N. J. Edwards and A. Roscowler.

The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, sufficient to cover her grave and that of her husband by whose side she has come at length to rest until the Resurrection morn.
