

MAYSVILLE

By Mary Belle Stott

Bert Weeks, Tom Foscoe, Rudolph Pelletier, Ralph Collins and Henry Gerock accompanied a party from Pollocksville to Morehead for a deep-sea fishing trip Thursday afternoon.

Among those who went from this vicinity to the 4-H Camp at White Lake this week were Bettie Lou Foscoe, Ann Morris, Bobbie Mattocks, James and Donald Barbee, and Patricia Jones.

For the past week or more several children have been giving special attention to a good case of measles: Don Mattocks, Bonnie Meiggs, Rosemary Costello, Chaude Henderson, Ellen Lathen and Tommie Foscoe. Whooping cough is also making its round again in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pruitt and Mrs. Pruitt's mother, Mrs. Zenna Foscoe, have recently moved back to Maysville from King's Mountain. Mr. Pruitt is the manager of the Superior Stone Company, which is soon to be in operation again—as soon as the water can be pumped from the marl hole.

Nelson Pate Edens Jr. is visiting with friends in town. He came to sing at the wedding of Christine Eubank and Albert Cox Saturday, June 25.

Rev. D. H. Lowder of Fayetteville, former pastor of the Maysville Baptist Church, was here to perform the Cox-Eubank wedding ceremony. Mrs. Lowder and their daughter, Shirley, were also here for the wedding.

Rev. C. M. Barclift, Superintendent District, preached in the Belgrade Methodist Church on Sunday night, June 26, and conducted the Second Quarterly Conference of the Maysville Charge.

Two sound motion pictures were shown at the evening service in Belgrade Church last Sunday night, one entitled "The Conversion", showing the conversion experience of Saul of Tarsus, and the other "From Fear to Faith" which was a missionary film showing the conversion of an African village.

Billie and Reba Bynum are attending the Third Youth Assembly at Louisburg College this week.

Mrs. C. M. Eubanks was a patient in St. Luke's Hospital in New Bern for several days last week.

Mrs. Laura Belle and her daughters, Laura Mattox and Kitty Bell, have returned home from Greenville for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown of Kinston visited Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brown Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Taylor visited her niece, Mrs. E. L. Rowe, in Norfolk a few days last week.

Wilber Foscoe of Baltimore is spending some time here with his sister, Lillian Foscoe.

Rudolph Pelletier, David Brown, and Richard Harper spent Tuesday in Norfolk on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pollock, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bynum, have returned to Charleston.

Cox-Eubank Wedding

Miss Elizabeth Christine Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Eubank of Maysville, and Albert Darrell Cox Jr., son of Mrs. A. D. Cox and the late Mr. Cox of Wilmington, were married Saturday, June 25, at 5 o'clock in the Maysville Baptist Church. The Rev. D. H. Lowder of Fayetteville, former pastor of the bride, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Nido Hamilton of Stella, pianist, and Nelson Pate Edens Jr., of Raleigh, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organdy fashioned with a low round neckline and tight-fitting bodice with full long sleeves caught tight at the wrist. The full skirt hung from a modified long-waist.

Her shoulder-length veil fell from a sweetheart-shaped head-dress of white organdy edged with double ruffles of the same material. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations, snapdragons, and gypsophelia.

Miss Virgilyn Gerock of Maysville, maid-of-honor, wore a dress similar to that of the bride. Her dress was of pink organdy with a tight-fitting bodice, short puffed sleeves, and a full ballerina length skirt. Her headdress was a pink sweetheart shaped bonnet edged with double ruffles of pink organdy. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations and white snapdragons.

Grady Crabtree was best man, and ushers were Bobby Orrell, Tommy Davis and Robert Buck, all of Wilmington.

Mrs. Eubank, mother of the bride, wore a rose dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Cox, mother of the bridegroom, wore white with an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. After July 6 the couple will make their home at Castle Hayne Road, Wilmington.

Mrs. Cox is a graduate of the Maysville - Pollocksville High School and attended James Walker Hospital School of Nursing.

Mr. Cox is a graduate of New Hanover High School, attended N. C. State College, and was a member of the U. S. Army. He is now in business with his uncle in Cox Brothers Produce, in Wilmington.

Following the rehearsal on Friday night, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Eubanks, parents of the bride, entertained at a cake cutting at their home. The home was decorated with white gardenias and gladioli.

After the bride and groom had cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. D. W. Lowder of Fayetteville served the wedding cake. Mrs. Eubanks, mother of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mints, nuts, and bridal sandwiches were served also. About 25 guests were present.

Parties

Mrs. Nido Hamilton of Stella entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. E. Raiford, June 22, at a tea honoring Miss Christine Eubank.

The home was decorated with mixed summer flowers and the tea table was covered with a lace cloth. Mrs. Raiford presided at the punch bowl. Other refreshments served were mints, nuts, sandwiches, and bridal cakes carrying out the bridal colors of green and white.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white gladioli and a butter knife in her chosen silver pattern. Mrs. June Creech, Jr., recent bride, was also presented with a gift. About 15 guests called.

Miss Eubank was honored at a surprise miscellaneous shower on June 17 at the home of Miss Virgilyn Gerock. The home was decorated with green and white daisies and gladioli. The guests were entertained with bridal games and puzzles.

Mrs. C. W. Gerock, mother of the hostess, poured punch and Miss Janie Henderson assisted the hostess in serving mints, cookies, and bridal sandwiches.

Miss Eubank received many lovely gifts. About 12 guests were present.

Mrs. Grady Crabtree entertained at her home on Wrightsville Beach at a crystal shower honoring Miss Christine Eubank on Wednesday night, June 15. The honoree received approximately 20 gifts from the guests.

On Thursday night, June 16, Miss Eubank was honored at a kitchen shower and bridge party by Mrs. Robert Buck and Mrs. Robert Orrell at the home of Mrs. Buck, Piney Woods, Wilmington. Miss Eubank received many lovely gifts. Mints, ice cream and cakes were served to fifteen guests.
