

POLLOCKSVILLE

By Mrs. Donald Hudson

Helen and Beba Whitty are attending the Girls' Auxiliary Baptist Camp at Fruitland this week. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Whitty of New Bern, formerly of Pollocksville.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Worley and children of Greenville, S. C., and Cecil Lassiter of Asheville were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Allen and family. Rev. Mr. Worley conducted services at the Baptist Church Sunday night.

Mrs. George Jarvis, Sr. has returned from WCUNC where she has been attending summer school and Mrs. Claude Allen, also a student, was home for the week-end.

Marie King of Clinton spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Hall and family last week.

Lois Cox, Myrtle Hall, Sonny Nye, and Charlie Hill attended a weiner roast at Flanner's Beach last week, given by a group of Cherry Point workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman celebrated the Fourth by spending the week-end at Carolina Beach.

Lucy Parker Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Simmons, has returned home after having spent a week with her aunt, Mrs. W. Grey Hargett of Richlands.

Patricia Ann Croom has returned to her home in Kinston after a two week visit with her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Askew.

Carol Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jenkins, fell while playing Tuesday night and suffered a broken arm.

Kate Kilpatrick and Virginia Kathryn and John Barefoot, children of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Barefoot of Benson, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John D. Jenkins for a few days.

Mrs. Annie C. Hughes left Friday for a few days' visit with her niece, Mrs. Luby Hardison, at "Whitford-on-the-Trent".

Mr. and Mrs. Luby Hardison left Friday for a short trip to the western part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hughes left the 5th for Wrightsville Beach to attend the Superior Court Clerk's Convention.

A number of the young folks of Pollocksville are once again de-tasseling hybrid corn on the Raven Wood Farm. Those employed are: Doris Armstrong, Jean and Retta Parker, Clara Creagh, Charles Duval, Bob Parker, Charles Ellington, Carter Williams, Jr., John Bender, Jr., Ike Goodwin, Amy White, Linwood Canady, Eugene Bender, John Ward and Ashford Rouse.

Mary Wallace Foy has gone to visit her sister, Mrs. Mac Robinson, of Vanceboro for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jarvis, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bender are sporting rather painful sunburn from a fishing trip last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Phillips motored to Asheville over the week-end to visit Mr. Phillips' brother.

Rev. A. S. Lamm, former pastor of Pollocksville Baptist Church, has been assisting Rev. Mr. Hodges, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church in New Bern in Vacation Bible School. Rev. Mr. Lamm has been visiting friends here and had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Phillips Wednesday.

Mrs. Carlyle Foy of Rocky Mount has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Beulah White, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Phillips and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burns and Caroline Ferrell of Nashville and Travers Rawls, Jr., of Verona, and Donald Hudson celebrated the Fourth by going deep sea fishing at Snead's Ferry.

Kathryn Worthington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carney Worthington, and niece of Carlton Parker visited for a week with Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Parker and family.

The Pollocksville Thursday Night Bridge Club did not meet as scheduled due to rain and several of the members were out-of-town to the ball game in New Bern.

The Pollocksville Rotary Club held its regular meeting Thursday night in the Presbyterian Church. They could have bragged of full attendance except for the absence of one member. A delicious dinner was served by members of the Methodist Church after which the cemetery project was discussed. Also, the fish fry held at Maysville week before last with the Maysville Rotary was discussed.

Malcolm Bender, who underwent a tonsillectomy two weeks ago, has been confined to the hospital for the past week and a half. He seemed to be recovering nicely when several days after the operation he began to hemorrhage. Several doctors were called in on his case and he now seems to be improving slowly. He expects to return home in a few days.

Birthday Party
David Waller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Waller, celebrated his third birthday at his home on Wednesday, June 23, from four to six o'clock. About 25 of his little friends enjoyed the occasion with him. They all had toy balloons to play with and his mother served them ice cream and cake.

Crab Dinner
Nuttie McDaniel and Mr. and Mrs. Carey Waters enjoyed a delicious crab dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cox Sunday night.
