Birthday Party

Master Charles Wackerman celebrated his seventh birthday with a party at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Johnson, on Saturday, Nov. 12. Color schemes used for decoration were red, white, and blue. The birthday cake carried out the traditional Armistice Day color. Paper hats were given as favors and nuts and hard candy were served during the playing of games. Miss Tiny Hammond directed the games, after which ice cream and cake were served by his mother, Mrs. Mabel Wackerman. The honoree received many useful gifts. About 14 children were present to enjoy the occasion.

Baptist Missionary Society

The Baptist Missionary Society held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 10, at the home of Mrs. G. G. Noble. Mrs. G. C. Heritage and Mrs. Jason Arthur were in charge of the program, while Miss Willa Beaman gave the devotional. After the business meeting Mrs. Noble and Mrs. F. C. Curtis, joint hostesses, served cake, tea and coffee. There were ten members present.

W.S.C.S. Meets

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Nelson Barker. Mrs. W. W. Mallard had charge of the worship program, while Mrs. J. R. Burt had the regular program, the theme being "Pakistan". Other members had parts in the program also. After the business meeting the hostess served fruit cake and hot coffee.

Tea

The Women's Society of Christian Service gave a tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. V. L. Pollock in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Howard, who were leaving Wednesday for Raleigh. The tea was given from 2 to 4 o'clock and was very successful. The occasion was most graciously decorated with tall candles, flowers and baskets. Refreshments met at the door by Mrs. Frances and then invited into the dining room by Mrs. Mac Griffin and Mrs. M. E. Hines. The dining table was a show piece, covered with a lace cloth and set with a centerpiece of tall candles and chrysanthemums. Mrs. J. K. Dixon, Sr. presided at the punch bowl while each guest served herself with nuts, candies, sandwiches and cookies. Those attending the tea were: Mrs. W. E. Moore, Pearl Hammond, W. E. Hammond, Nelson Barker, C. F. Banks, Grover Mallard, W. W. Mallard, W. S. Hill, Mac Griffin, J. K. Dixon, Sr., W. D. Mallard, M. E. Hines, Frank Brock, and Mrs. Edgar Philyaw and Mrs. Pauline Meadows of Comfort, the hostess, and honor guests, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Howard.
