ton Controls Names

The Zion Lodge No. 81 of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons marked its 125th Anniversary with a special celebration on Thursday night in Trenton. The 78-member lodge had 150 masons present, with the visitors from 15 Masonic lodges as far away as Atlantic. The special guest of the celebration in the Trenton American Legion Building was William J. Bundy, past grand muster of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, who addressed the gathering.

Following dinner at 6 p. m. the ceremonies were opened by Zion Lodge's Worshipful Master John Hughes Pollock, and welcome to guests was given by George R. Hughes, with a response from A. A. Kafer, Jr.

A history of the Zion Lodge was related by H. M. Mallard, who gave many interesting quotes from old minutes of the lodge. He revealed that the charter was issued December 19, 1824 to "Frent" and not Trenton, and that the boundaries set by it were "east to the rising sun, west to the seting sun south to now Brocks) Pond and difficult. He said Zion Lodge had been a "great rock of stability" in the community, and on its rolls were the names of the lead-ers of the community.

WORK IS BEGUN ON COMMUNITY CENTER ATTEPOLITOCKSVILLE

The foundation work has be gun and the concrete blocks for the construction are bought for the Pollocksville Community Building. The project will be carried through to completion without pause, although funds have not yet been raised in sufficient amount to pay the entire cost.

A little more than $1,700 has been collected from pledges to date, but the final n material and labor, is expe-to be at least twice that amo The fund-raising esampaign continue, and that effort is yes votes and not a single no for the imposition of cotton acreage controls on Thursday. In the same referendum voting 568 farmers voted in the election of 21 community Triple-A committeemen and seven delegates and alternates to the county convention on Friday night in Trentan.

CONVALESCING

In that Friday convention the delegates and alternates to the delegates and alternates to the county convention on Friday night in Trenton.

In that Friday convention the delegates were George M. Maltocks, White Oak; Hugh Loftin, Pollocksville; J. T. Stilley, Trenton; D. E. Andrews, Cypress Creek; R. Lee Fordham, Tuckahoe; Paul D. Gilbert, Chinquapin; and Tillman Holloman, of Beaver Creek. The delegates reelected the incumbent county committee for another year, Triple-A Secretary Nelson Barker reported. The county's Production and Marketing Adminduction and Marketing Administration committee is comprised of Chairman Milton E. Gilbert of Chinquapin Township, Vice-Chairman Jeff J. Conway of White Oak, and Member John M. Hargett of Tuckahoe. First and second alternates, respectively, are Clyde A. Loftin of Trenton and Julian Waller of Pollockscommunity committee-ected in the townships on ay, and named here in or-

Render and W. J. Johnson;
Trenton—James B. Henderson,
Wilmer E. Mallard and J. T. Stilley; Cypress Creek—D. E. Andrews, Billy Wiggins, and E.
L. Metts; Tuckahoe — W. J.
Jones, R. Lee Fordham, and A.
B. Howard; Chinquapin—Ralph
Scott, Nathan Gilbert and James Nicholson; and Beaver Creek— Nicholson; and Beaver Creek-J. T. Davenport, Linwood Pol-lock and Walton Daughety. A general survey of the Thurs-day voting for the community committeemen and delegates revealed a normal vote in six of the seven townships, most ranging in the fifties and sixties. But in in the fifties and sixties. But in one township—Chinquapin—the normal vote tripled with 195 ballots in the face of unusual vote-gathering activity. No effect of the activity was evident in the remaining six townships, however, with only one—Tuckahoe—casting as high as 84 votes.

The yes vote cast by 49 out of some 60 eligible cotton farmers will peg Jones County's acreage at some 700 acres, only about 12 and one-half per cent of the averages of past years when the ages of past years when the reage at one time reached 5,-0 acres, Barker said.

Fremature Baby Moves

From Jones to Lenoir
Little Hazel Jane Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hill, was born too early on November 7, but has made great gains and covered a lot of ground lines that time. Her latest move has been from her home in Jones County to a new one in

SEED CLEANING REACHING PEAK

The activity shown above taking place at the rear The activity shown above taking place at the rear of the Jones County Agriculture Building in Trenton is getting in high gear now. It is in the cooperative Seed Exchange of the county. Feeding the massive machine with bags of lespedexa seed produced by Jones County farmers is Thomas Stilley, who has charge of the operation of the plant, Examining the lot going through is County Agent A. V. Thomas. The six-year-old exchange cleans from 75,000 to 100,000 pounds of lespedeza seed each year, and 150,000 pounds of soy beans, much of it a money crop for the producers. The heavy harvest this year is expected to bring a peak operation to the plant. Beginning now a smaller machine in the exchange will be cleaning local tobacco seed for the county's growers. (Whitaker-Leffew Photo)

Santa Gets Tremendous Welcome Throng In Trenton's Parade From

CHRIST WITH SHOW

The Trenton Woman's Club held its annual Christmas party for members and guests at the clubhouse last Thursday evening.

The club room was attractively decorated for the Christmas

Miss Eleanor Brock, assisted by Mrs. D. M. Griffin and Mrs. J. K. Dixon, Jr., planned and di-rected the entertainment. The group was asked to join in a period of Christmas fun, including games, contests and carols.

Refreshments of punch, holiday cookies, candy and nuts were served by the hostesses, Mrs. J. H. Pollock and Mrs. T.

Christmas Turkey Shoots

A series of Turkey Shoots is now going on in Lenoir and Jones Counties to give marksmen a chance to get an inexpensive turkey for their Christmas dinner. Two more shoots remain in the series being put on by Bunk Jones of Deep Run. On Thursday the target shooting will begin at 9 a.m. at Daughtery's Store near Sasser's Mill in Jones County. The remaining Lenoir County shoot will take place at 9 a.m. Friday at Bill Byrd's Store at Pink Hill

NEED A BULL?

Santa Claus came to Trenton medicies on Friday afterness for the first time since before World War II, and some 2,500 persons were on hand to welcome him in the procession of 10 decorated floats and a number of marching units. The county schools were turned out early for the children to participate in the greeting and handsome floats prepared by them were evidence of long preparation.

The parade greeted Santa at the west end of the town and then wound through the business district, circled down by the river and came to a halt in front of the Courthouse. Santa talked to the youngsters there and passed out hundreds of bags of fruit and candy, as the sound truck unit of the parade played traditional Christmas music.

In the parade the guard of honor, comprised of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and American Legionnaires, led the procession. The floats which followed were those of the 4-H Club, Future Farmers of America, Veterans Farm Training Program, the Trenton High School, a junior Santa on a float drawn by a

FARM BUREAU IN JONES NAMES NEW OFFICERS FOR 1950

New officers and directors of the Jones County Farm Bureau the Jones County Farm Bureau were elected at the annual meeting of the organization in the Trenton Agriculture Building last week on December 9. The new president is R. P. Bender of Pollocksville, and his vice-president is W. E. Phillips of Trenton Route 2. Thomas Stilley of Trenton is the secretary-treasurer.

The township directors elected were Eugene Simpson, White Oak; W. G. Mallard, Pollocksville; J. K. Dixon, Jr., Trenton; Joe Pollock, Cypress Creek; R. L. Fordham, Tuckahoe; W. W. Lowery, Chinquapin; and E. H. Pollock, Beaver, Creek.

white horse, Santa himself on float drawn by two blac Trenton Negro School, Jones County Negro Training Program. The maing units were a mixed of from the Trenton High Sci the Boys' Choir from the His School, the Negro Shrine Cla Negro American Legionnair and fourth and fifth grade youngsters singing carols. In an auto was Mayor C. C. Jone State Senator John D. Larkin. Jr., and members of the town council.

The idea of the invitation to Santa Claus originated this year with R. L. Edwards, who named to head an impromptu merchants committee to make the arrangements. The over-whelming welcome given Santa paralyzed downtown Trenton on Friday afternóon.

The decorated floats were all of general excellence and all in the Christmas theme. Included among them was a globe of the world surrounded by costumed carol singers, a family Christmas scene, and Santa had his chimney and fireplace with goodies piled in front of it. Con floats in the parade were those of the Brock Motor Company, Trenton, and the West Machinery Company or Amston, created a great stir with its bear-driven International tractor. No ery Company of Kinston, which prizes were awarded for the be among the gaily decorated floats.

