The Col. John N. Whitford chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held the March meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Bender, with the president, Mrs. Ida Henderson, presiding. The meeting opened with the reading of the 43rd Psalm by the chaplain, followed by the Lord's Prayer said in unison. A letter from Mrs. Louise McGowan, new North Carolina historian, was read. The members paused for a moment of silent meditation for Mrs. E. S. Hudgens, who is ill in St. Luke's Hospital. Routine business being completed, the historian gave an interesting historical program. The chapter was invited to meet April 19 at the home of Mrs. A. H. White. The meeting adjourned with the watchword. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. A. Parker, served a delicious dessert course and coffee.
