

Letter To The Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:
 Contrary to opinions formed by some of the citizens of Kinston and Lenoir County the Disabled American Veterans State Convention, held last week in this city, did NOT sanction any political speeches by anyone in the current race. The State Department requested that this statement be released to press and radio and so I would appreciate your passing it along to your readers. The Disabled American Veterans is a non-political organization composed of Disabled Veterans interested only in the welfare of the Disabled and their families.

Another problem has arisen. Some professional BUMS that were passing themselves off as DISABLED VETERANS were selling banners, flags, buttons, ribbons and other patriotic emblems during our convention. I assure you that the D.A.V. did not sell anything to the public and asked for no monies, or contributions on the streets of Kinston. These men are CANCERS to the Disabled Veterans Organization and were run out of town as soon as they were spotted. We hope that the citizens will not hold our organization responsible for the actions of these men.

Thank you
CARL B. CAUDILL, JR.,
 Commander
