Malker-Daughter Banquet Held On 20th

nty demonstrated their abil-to plan, prepare and serve al by acting as hostesses at angust honoring their moth-last Friday. A number of cial guests also were invited attend the banquet, which is held in the cafeteria of les Central High School.

The club colors, red and white were used to attractively set off the dining room.

HA President Sadie Eubanks, g the club ceremonies, openthe evening and welcomed mothers and other guests and Mrs. Hugh Oliver respond-after the banquet an enter-ining program was given in a gym which included chapter

the gym which included chapter news, by Secretary Ruby Lee Gray, which was fellowed by group singing which was led by Norris Jenkins.

Lucille Banks modeled a cos-tume of her own make, showing how it could be worn four dif-ferent ways and Shirley Morris sang two solos, "Beyond, the Sunset" and "Whispering Hope." Ann Morris entertained with tap-dancing and poems were recited dancing and poems were recited by Jean Monette, Martha Oliver and Dorothy Hawkins and a short play, "Letter From Mothwas given by several Nancy Carrol Mallard presentd the club advisor, Mrs. Phillips, with a gift of crystal from club members after which the banjust program was concluded and most enjoyable time was reported by the 185 mothers, daughters and special guests who attended.

4-H Notes

y CAROL JENKINS

locksville 4-H Club was held 19th in the school auditori-Our president, Douglas banks, called the meeting to order. We stood and said the club pledge. The secretary read the minutes which were approved as read.

There was no business so the meeting was turned over to our program chairman, A. D. Jar-man. Leah Batchelor read the scripture and lead us in the Lord's Prayer.

We all stood and sang "This Little 4-H Light". Betty Bell read a poem. There was a short story by Carolyin Barrow. The title of the story was "Butterball's Skirt." Mary Ann Williams and Jo Ann Simmons sang "O Hapy Day." Barbara Ball and Bradford Jenkins said a poem called "I Remember, I Re-

The program was then turned back to our president. Still there was no business so the meeting was turned over to Miss ens and Mr. Shackelford. Miss Owens showed the girls how to work a sewing machine. Then the meting was adjourned.

Corsage Making School in Jones

"The secret of a good corsage is fresh flowers and good wir-ing," said Pauline Gordon at a meeting on Corsage making in Trenton on March 26.

Twenty-seven Jones County women attended this demonstration, bringing with them all kinds of lovely fresh flowers th which to make corsage the which to make corsages. For Miss Gordon demonstrative the basic principles, everying went to work. The result a about fifty pretty consages if you see more corsages a faster than usual—it might because the husbands are

Marriage License

Jones County Register of eeds has reported the issue of two marriage licenses in the past week: George Williams, 43, of Trenton to Lue Annie Arneth, 45, also of Trenton and Robert Allen Meadows, 22, of Maysville to Mary Pickett Bloomberg, 18, also of Maysville.

Per capita cotton consumption in the United States has increased from 20.56 pounds in 1939 in 1951. to 26.84 pounds at present.

North Caroline beet production produced in North Carolina in this year is expected to be about 1952 went into Class I fluid milk 7 per cent lower than in 1952, and cream sales.

One Jones Arrest

Only one arrest has been logged in the Sheriff's record books in Jones County during the past week and that was of Walter Foy of Maysville who was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman Marvin Thomas and Deputy Sheriff Brown Yates and charged with public drunken-ness and disorderly conduct.

The European corn borer detroyed 1.7 per cent, of the total United States corn crop last year, compared with 1.2 per cent

About 98.5 per cent of the milk produced in North Carolina in

Investigation Being Held on Robberies Three Jones Shools

Sheriff Jeter Taylor, assisted by State Bureau of Investigation Agent George Canaday, of Kinston, is trying to clear up a peculiar trio of breaking cnd enterings that took place Sunday night.

Three of Jones County's schools were broken into; Comfort, Jones Central High and the Polocksville School. Some $50 was taken from the high school and about $10 was missing from lunch room funds at Comfort and nothing could be found missing at the Pollocks-ville school. It appeared that all of the three breakings and en-terings were done by the same person or persons.

North Carolina has the largest rural population in the na-

G. N. Noble of Trenton has been elected to membership in the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association at Chicago, announces Secretary Frank

Noble was one of the five purebred Aberdeen-Angus breeders elected from North Carolina during the past month to mem-bership in the organization.

Notes From Negro Farm and Home Agents

JONES H. D. MEMBERS ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

A group of Jones County H. D. Club members attended the Annual State Council meeting held last Wednesday in Raleigh. The last Wednesday in Raleigh. The theme for the program was: "Lifting As We Climb."

Attending from Jones County were: Mesdames Lizzie Berry, Hester Brimage, Lydia Smith, Ada Kornegay, Julia Barfield, Isabelle Kornegay, Rebie Kornegay, Sarah Lee Kinsey, Laura May Annie May Bruenton. Fan-May, Annie May Bruenton, Fannie Bruington, Blanch Jones, Gladie Strayhorn, Gladie Cheston, Elizabeth Burney, Novella Jerkins, Catherine Foye, Bricie Bryant, Judy Cobb, Annie L. Becton, Rosa Mills, Martha Chapman, Ruby Gooding, Lena Jerkins, Ethel Irving, Della Hill, Dora Williams, Geneva Berry, Addie Hill, Etta Dove and Pearl Berry.

PULLORUM CLEAN CHICKS

LAYING STRAIN-NEW HAMPSHIRES BARRED ROCKS PARMENTER REDS WHITE BOCKS

New Bern Hatchery 128 Middle St. New Bern

GRAIN TROUGH . . . To save feed, the above drawing shows how a trough can be built under a feed rack. It will save that feed that

Bring It to Your Old Friend at

PAUL'S GARAGE

Body Repairs - Painting Bear Alignment

24-HOUR WRECKER SERVICE

DAY DIAL 4206

NIGHT DIAL 3266

1711 Neuse Blvd.

New Bern, N. C.

Two EXTRA Good Places To Eat In NEW BERN!!

Moore's Barbecue

MRS. J. L. MOORE, PROP.

1216 Broad Street

New Bern

FOR WHITE

Barbecue Chicken Barbecue Pig Sea Foods

John Moore's Bar-B-Q Inn

JOHN MOORE, PROP.

1001 Queen Street

New Bern

- FOR COLORED -

Barbecue Pig and Good Food

Original Hickory Cooked Barbecue Made Each Day