ON NAVY NINE

won the next three with Jones belting one home run in the series. In the All-Navy finals at Jacksonville, Florida, he collected 8 hits in 14 times at bat as Alamitos won the All-Navy title in three games. They then traveled to Quantico, Va., and captured the Inter Service Championship with two victories and no defeats.

Property of the Cleveland Indians of the American League Majors, Jones expects to re-join their farm system at Indianapolis, Indiana, of the American Association.

His professional baseball was begun with Burlington, Iowa, Class C club in 1948 where he hit .265 over the regular season. In 1949 he was switched to Pittsfield, Mass., also Class C, averaging .287. Burlington and Pittsfield were both pennant winners. In 1950 he was brought up to the Class A Wilkes Barre, leigh Tuesday morning and along with Cyrus Edward Porter, Jr., of Greenville, was charged with holding up the First Citizens Bank and Trust Company on August 28th. Stroud, who by his own admission, is a "big time" gambler was keeping his parole "warm" by holding down a "head waiter" job in a Raleigh joint. He was awakened from his slumbers in the Young Men's Christian Association building by FBI agents who placed him under arrest.

Elmer Baysden, well known Jones County hunter, along with Roy L. Wells of Waynesville went into Croatan National Forest on Monday of this week and came back with a "Story of the Four Bears." They had killed four bears, including one "Papa" bear that weighed 391 pounds before "undressing," two cubs of about 100 pounds each and a mama bear that weighed 178 pounds.
