Wake Up to a Good Breakfast

THOSE OF YOU who dash off to the office with only a quick cup of coffee and a glass of fruit juice are just plain abusing yourselves. Today, more than ever, doctors and nutritionists keep reminding us that we need about one third of the food we eat each day at breakfast time if we're to avoid that tired, late morning feeling. Now if you are one of these skimpy breakfast eaters, one who says he can't eat breakfast, you'll change your mind, once you've tried a breakfast of Blueberry Pancakes. They are so easy to prepare, so mouthwatering, you'll surprise yourself at the breakfast you eat. Now's the time to make Blueberry Pancakes at their best with fresh Cultivated Blueberries at the peak of their juicy perfection. Here's what you'll need and what to do:

BLUEBERRY PANCAKES (Makes 14 4/8" pancakes)

2 cups pancake mix
1 tablespoon sugar, optional

1 cup Cultivated Blueberries, washed and well-drained

Prepare pancake mix according to package directions. Add sugar to blueberries if desired. Lightly fold blueberries into batter. Bake on hot, lightly greased griddle, turning once.

NOTE: If frozen Cultivated Blueberries are used, thaw and drain berries. Fold in 3/4 cup blueberries. If canned Cultivated Blueberries are used, drain well. Fold in 3/4 cup blueberries.

How Life-Saving Livium In Nutrena Protects Pullets For Only Pennies More Than Grain!

Your pullets need protection from Coccidiosis outbreaks, plus extra nutritional power to mature safely and fast. Nutrena's new Life-Saving Livium provides this help to laying age for only 7 to 11 cents more per pullet than cost of grain.

Helps Build Heavy Layers—Fights Coccidiosis!

Can you afford to risk losing pullets to Coccidiosis, or to have birds stunted by malnutrition? Not when it costs so little to give them the priceless protection of Nutrena Pullet Grower with new Life-Saving Livium. See us this week for . . .

THIS IS THE LAW

By CHARLES W. DANIEL
(For the N. C. Bar Association)
Justices of the Peace

There are more than 2,000 Justices of the Peace in North Carolina today. Some are elected by the people, some are named by Superior Court judges, some are appointed by the Governor, and a large number are named in an "omnibus bill" every two years by our General Assembly, some of whom never qualify for office.

Statutes provide that elected J. P.'s and those appointed by the resident Superior Court judge of a county shall serve for two years. Those appointed by the governor have four-year terms. Governor Umstead has adopted a policy of naming about 250 J. P.'s each year during his term.

Limited Authority

Jaypees, by statute, have rather sharply limited authority to try both civil and criminal cases. In civil actions based on contract they have EXCLUSIVE, original authority if the sum involved (not counting interest) is $200 or less. Other civil matters, within their right to try, are limited to claims of $50 or less. They can NOT hear disputes over title to real estate. By special law, however, they may try disputes between landlord and tenant over the right to possession of real estate. The amount demanded by a party before a J. P., and NOT the amount ACTUALLY involved, determines the magistrate's power to hear the case.

Justices of the Peace may try, with EXCLUSIVE, original authority, all criminal cases the punishment for which does not exceed $50 fine or 30 days in jail. They have no right to hear charges of assault with intent to kill and assault with intent to commit rape, except to find "probable cause." Upon finding of probable cause, such cases are actually tried later by the Superior Court or a Recorder's Court. Upon appeal filed within 10 days after J. P. trial, the person appealing in most cases is entitled to a complete new trial in a higher court.

May Not Draft Will

A Justice of the Peace may NOT draft a will or draw a deed for another, unless he is a lawyer and does so in the latter capacity. A non-lawyer who purports to do these things is subject to prosecution and restraint under the North Carolina statute defining the practice of law.

Fees payable to Jaypees for issuing summons, hearing cases and issuing subpoenas are not the same in every county. These fees, however, are set out specifically in Chapter 7, section 134 of the General Statutes. Regular monthly reports of fees received and deposits made must be made to the clerk of court of the county served by the J. P.

A statute designed to uphold the dignity of the magistrate's court gives him authority to punish a person found in contempt. The law says:

"If any person shall profanely swear or curse in the hearing of a Justice of the Peace, holding court, the justice may commit him for contempt, or fine him not exceeding five dollars."

At the request of either party to action before him, the justice can compel attendance of witnesses. If a witness fails to appear, he must forfeit eight dollars to the person for whom he was summoned.

Can "Attach" Property

A justice can "attach" property in a proper case, just as the clerk or judge of Superior Court can do so. If an "order of attachment" is issued against the property of a person who can not be found for personal service of summons, notice of the claim must be posted for 30 days at the county courthouse door.

The statutes regulating magistrate courts also provide for trial by jury upon request of either party where there is a question of fact to be determined. The statute specifies a six-man jury. The parties may agree to have the case heard by a less number of jurors, however. Each justice is required to keep a jury box of two divisions with a lock for each containing the names of qualified persons from the township in which the magistrate serves. No person is compelled to serve as a juror in a justice's court out of his township, except as a talesman. Each party in a J. P. case is allowed, as a matter of right, to challenge two jurors and have them excused from the trial.

A party demanding a jury trial must post three dollars with the justice. It is required that each juror be paid 25 cents for his services, but only if the party requesting the jury trial wins the case. If the party requesting the jury loses, the jurors may be out of luck insofar as their "pay" is concerned.
