Celebrates Fifteenth Birthday in Hospital

Miss Rosemary Costello, who is a patient in the North Carolina Orthopedic Hospital in Gastonia, was honored on her fifteenth birthday Saturday with a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Costello.

Guests who celebrated with Rosemary were the forty patients on her hospital ward, Mrs. Douglas Foy of Jacksonville, Mrs. Gerald Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. Costello.

After singing the traditional "Happy Birthday" and balloons were given to the guests and the group was served birthday cake which was frosted with orchid icing (orchid being Rosemary's favorite color), Pepsi-colas, popicles and candy.

The party was climaxed with the honoree opening many lovely gifts, of which thirty were sent from her many friends in Maysville — to them Rosemary says, "Sincere Thanks."

Business Woman's Circle Holds Meeting

Six members of the Business Woman's Circle of the First Baptist Church met in the parsonage Friday night for their regular meeting.

The president, Mrs. Jean Ferrell presided over the business session and at that time appointed a nominating committee to select a new slate of officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Ferrell, assisted by Mrs. Margaret Wester, Mrs. Gerald Riggs and Miss Rosa Collins presented the program entitled, "Foreign Missions". After adjournment the hostess, Mrs. Gerald Riggs, served banana cream pie with whipped cream and soft drinks.
