MYF Council Meets At Camp Don Lee for Recreation Workshop

The Council of the Jacksonville sub-district of the Methodist Youth Fellowship met at Camp Don-lee near Arapahoe last weekend for a recreation workshop with 17 members of the sub-district, representing seven churches, present. Mrs. T. H. Swofford of Hubert, conducted the workshop lectures, while the Reverend Robert F. Moore of Maysville assisted by conducting folk dances and active games.

Three young people from the Maysville church accompanied the pastor: Anne Smith, Hilda Foy and Howard Pruitt.

The Reverend Moore is pastoral counselor of the Jacksonville sub-district and this is the second retreat this year to plan the work of the group. The other was held earlier in Pollockville.

Junior Class Outing

Last Saturday afternoon the Junior class of Maysville Methodist Church School, taught by Mrs. Ray Gibson, went to Camp Don-Lee for a picnic. The group enjoyed an afternoon of swimming in the pool, sight-seeing and a picnic lunch in the camp picnic area. Those who assisted Mrs. Gibson with transportation were Robert Curtin, Ray Gibson, James Harriett and Mrs. Maxine Britt.
