Mrs. Harold Hargett Jr. Hostess to Her Club

The Little Bridge Club met Friday night in the home of Mrs. Harold Hargett, Jr. During three progressions, Mrs. Hargett served pretzels and soft drinks to her guests, who included Mesdames Rogers Pollock, Fred Pippin, J. R. Franck, Millis Wright, Marvin Thomas and Harold Hargett, Sr. Mrs. Pollock won high score and Mrs. Thomas won low. After play, Mrs. J. R. Franck was presented with a stork shower and wore a corsage of yellow roses, given to her upon arrival. Then the guests were served lime sherbert, cup cakes, pickles, nuts and amber punch.

Christian Education Week to be Observed By Trenton Methodists

Miss Tiny Hammond, chairman of the commission on education, announces that the Trenton Methodist Church will observe Christian Education Week beginning Sunday Sept. 29th at the morning worship service.

The service will keynote the vital role that public school education plays in all of our lives.

The teachers of Jones County are cordially invited to attend and will be special honored guests at the service. The Reverend Louis Dillman will conduct the service.

Methodist Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Town and Country Commission for the Methodist Churches in the New Bern district Sept. 18th at the Trenton Methodist Church. Representatives of the declining churches will attend the meeting and lunch will be served by members of the Womans Society for Christian Service.

The Seminar of the WSCS will be held at Beach Grove Church Sept. 18th.
