This House Puts Beauty Into a Cost-Saving Rectangle

Employing the principle that a simple rectangular design produces the most house for the money, Designer Donald Scholz has here produced a house that's as beautiful as it is economical.

Here's the achievement—four bedrooms, two generous baths, all rooms of good size, and long, low sweeping exterior graciousness. Shutters, planter boxes, exterior siding variations, and a columned porch with arch design more than compensate for the simplicity of the home's four straight walls.

As interesting indoors as out, the house has a private L-shape sleeping area and a compact kitchen-dining-living area. The kitchen work space, also L-shape, shows how the designer utilizes this shape to gain utmost convenience with minimum interior-partitioning costs. All rooms are in line, with hall space kept well within "efficiency" limitations.

Deft planning has grouped all plumbing—two baths, laundry-utility, and kitchen—into one compact service area which shares plumbing lines. In an alternate basement plan, a staircase replaces the utility room, and both baths are the same size. Space for family living, with beauty and economy, are all present in this well-planned home. The secret—Designer Don Scholz' adept handling of a shape that's easiest to build, but most difficult to glamorize—the simple rectangle.

Floor area of the house is 1192 sq. ft. Get further free information on this house by writing: Don Scholz Design Associates, Dept. 105, 2001 N. Westwood, Toledo 7, Ohio.

ing. At that time the society voted to order one hundred boxes of note paper to sell. This note paper will have a picture of the Maysville Methodist Church on it.

The group also voted to change the meeting date from the first Monday night in the month to the first Tuesday night in the month.

Mrs. Holden, Secretary of Youth Work, reported that additional sessions for the MYF girls had been started. She reported nine of these girls had met at her home recently and were studying "Missions in Japan".

Secretary of Children's Work, Mrs. Morgan announced that additional Church School sessions will be held twice a month for children ages 4-12. These meetings will be held at the church on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 3:30 P. M. This group will also study "Japan", which is the quarterly emphasis of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The hostess, Mrs. C. L. Morgan and Mrs. Guy Jones served cake, nuts and coffee.

Mrs. Robert Hays is Hostess to Her Club

Mrs. Robert Hays entertained with two tables of bridge at her home Thursday night. Before the three progressions Mrs. Hays served pecan pie and coffee to the following guests: Mesdames Fannie Pruitt, Lem Meiggs, Jere Walter Pelletier, Virgil Jenkins, Robert Mattocks and John Holden. Cakes and nuts were served during the play.

High score was won by Mrs.

sor a box-social, with an auction for the ladies' suppers, cake-walks, folk games and quiet games. This party will be held in the school gym, Friday February 14, at 7:30 P. M.
