A Summary of the Employment Situation in North Carolina

AGRICULTURAL

Kinston-Lenoir-Trenton Area:
Cotton yield is good, all available labor is being used picking. Sweet potato harvest is slowly getting underway and some corn is being harvested with mechanical pickers.

New Bern Area

Sweet potatoes are 40 per cent dug with prices showing fair to good. Local and on-farm labor sufficient for harvest. Light cotton harvest has begun as good weather prevails.

STATE SUMMARY

Good weather has prevailed generally. Asheville area's bean crop will be completely harvested by October 1. Camden will need labor for bean crop in October while Currituck County will use 650 migrant workers. Beans will mature about one week late in Edenton area. Sweet potatoes are showing good yield. A Bayboro crew is in Carteret-Onslow area. Currituck quality, quantity and prices are good as they are in Mt. Olive. Harvest has just begun in Washington section while it is 40 per cent complete in New Bern area. Cotton is being picked all over. While first pickings are being completed at Fayetteville, other sections report peak activity. Peanuts will begin being dug in Edenton area Sept. 29 and in about two weeks in Greenville. Corn yields are good with mechanical pickers being used around Greenville, harvest wages are $11 an acre or 50c hour. Tobacco is moving to market with Greenville reporting 40 percent graded. Wages generally are: Cotton picking $4 cwt; grading tobacco $4 cwt.; harvesting corn 25c-30c bushel; sweet potatoes 12c-23c. Hendersonville reports prices for vegetables as: Pole beans $2.20-$6.30; cabbage $1.35 50 lb. sack; peppers $2-$3; apples $3.50-$4. Hendersonville reports that 247 children of migrant families are attending the special school set up for them.
