SECOND YEAR GIRLS "KEEP CHRISTMAS"

The second year F.H.A. girls at Jones Central High School are putting forth an effort to "Keep Christ in Christmas." Posters pertaining to the Nativity are being prepared by the girls and placed in stores and other public buildings throughout Jones County.

(These girls believe that Christmas should be more than "just a time for exchanging gifts." They believe "Christmas is a time of reverence and praise." They wish to keep the real meaning of Christmas.

TOP SALESMEN FOR P.T.A. DINNER WIN PRIZES

The Parent-Teacher Association of Jones Central High School offered prizes to students for selling tickets to the P. T. A. dinner held December 5.

These students were the top five salesmen. Susan Vasse, awarded first prize, a Bulova watch by Gooding's Jewelry Store of Trenton. Others allowed to select prizes were Jerry Pelletier, who chose a $25 Savings Bond given by the Branch Banking and Trust Company of Trenton, and Dorothy Philyaw, who selected "The Rocket", yearbook of Jones Central High School. Glenda Harker chose a camera given by Bender Candy Company of Pollocksville, and Martha Pruitt chose a Sheaffer fountain pen given by Trenton Drug Company.

CENTRAL GIRLS DOWN PINK HILL 55-46

Jones Central's girls' Basketball team returned to the victor's ranks with a showing before a large crowd, Friday night December 5 by defeating Pink Hill 55-46.

The three high scorers were: Betty Jones 16, Peggy Craft 6 and Nola Bonner 6.

The three standouts on defense were: Jo Ann Craft, Linda Mills and Glenda Harker.

Although Casey Price, Nola Bonner, and Maxine Spence didn't see much action in this game, they will in the near future.

Betty Jones, in good form scored 8 shots out of 17 attempts from the floor. Jo Ann Craft, a junior got 6 rebounds during the game and Peggy Craft, a sophomore, got 5.

F. H. A. HOLDS MEETING

The F.H.A. of Jones Central held a meeting December 5. During the meeting the members decided to give a present at the end of the school year to the member who acquires the most merit points.

A merit point is an hour spent in some task related to teaching, such as reading to small children, helping a younger brother or sister with a lesson, or reading a magazine for teachers.

Ann Scott was appointed by the president, Ellender Jenkins, to keep a record of the merit points in order to buy a gift for the one with the most points, each month each member pays a nickel except the one who has the most points for that month.

CENTRAL WINS EASILY

On Friday night, December 5, Jones Central played host to Pink Hill. In the first quarter the "Rockets" pulled to an early lead of 15-8 by the end of the quarter with Hood scoring 6 of the points.

Again in the second quarter Central outscored the visitors and increased the margin of their lead to 10, with Mallard scoring 7 and

The N. C. Job Picture

Kinston-Lenoir-Trenton Area: Many farmers in area have started preparing their tobacco plant beds. The good weather last winter has caused these growers to get this work completed before winter sets in. Growers are also cleaning their ditches.

New Bern Area: Light and scattered corn and soy bean harvests continuing. Stalk cutting, plowing and small grain sowing following the harvesting of corn and soy beans. Tobacco farmers preparing ground for tobacco plant beds. Permanent pastures being fertilized. Tenants and farm workers beginning to move from farm to farm.

Hood again scoring 6.

In the third quarter the two teams scored little but Central again outscored the visitors. The score at the end of the third period was 40-26.

The fourth quarter saw a lot of reserves on the court. Jones Central removed every man from its bench. The substitutes played very well and ended the game with a 60-46 decision.

High scorers for Pink Hill were Howard with 16 and Turner with 10. High man for Central was Mallard with 22. Hood followed with 18. In the rebound department Barbee was high with 4, the rest of the rebounds being evenly distributed over the rest of the team. Heath, Mallard, and Hood all stole the ball a total of 3 times each. In the second half Central hit 60 per cent of their shots.
