Mrs. Marvin Thomas Hostess to Her Club

The Little Bridge Club met Friday night in the home of Mrs. Marvin Thomas. Guests were Mesdames Donald Brock, Harold Hargett Jr., Rogers Pollock, Fred Pippin, Wilson Harriett, Bill Parker, Fred Foscue and Hazel Turnage.

Mrs. Hargett was presented a corsage of pink rosebuds upon arrival. During play, drinks, nuts and crackers were served.

After three progressions, Mrs. Foscue received high prize and Mrs. Hargett received low prize, in addition to a gift to her new baby girl from the members of the club. The hostess served strawberry shortcake at the end of play.

Trenton Baptist Girls Receive Recognition

A Girls Auxiliary presentation service was held Sunday night in the Baptist Church for nine girls who received green octagon emblems for meeting one of the requirements in the seven forward steps of the auxiliary.

In a candlelighted service, the following girls took part on the program: Jo Ann Smith, Brenda Stille, Ann Eubanks, Mary Grace Curtiss, Shela Black, Brenda Hill, Sandra Findeisen, Jackie Mercer and Phyllis Eubanks.

Each girl wore green and white and carried yellow nosegays. Mrs. W. J. Findeisen and Mrs. W. F. Hill presented the girls the emblems and also sterling silver G.A. charm bracelets to which a charm for each requirement fulfilled will be added.

Following the service, the girls and their parents were invited to a reception held in the back of the church.

Lifetime Pin Given

During the regular worship service at the Methodist Church Sunday, Mrs. Lewis Dillman was given a life membership pin by the members of the Womans Society of Christian Service. This pin is given to any member who has given of her time and service to the church willingly and unselfishly. During the service, the officers of the WSCS were also installed for the coming year by the pastor.
