

Future Homemakers Hold Mother-Daughter Banquet

Approximately 200 Future Homemakers, Mothers and special guests attended the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet at Jones Central School on Thursday evening.

The F.H.A. opening ceremony presided over by Elaine Parker, opened the banquet activities. Margaret Jones, vice-president and program chairman, served as Mistress of Ceremonies. Rebecca Foscoe, chapter reporter, gave the invocation and Pat Humphrey, chapter secretary, extended greetings to the group after which Mrs. Guy Jones responded for the Mothers. Miss Parker introduced special guests present.

The program "F.H.A. in Focus" which was given by various F.H.A. members focused attention on the Future Homemakers' organization and some of its local activities.

Girls in this part of the program were: Rose Marie Jones, Jasmine Jones, Linda Jenkins, Nancy Davenport, Cynthia Westbrook, Sue Nobles, Sandra Jones, Susan Parker and Barbara Bender.

Some of the local activities performed by the Jones Central homemakers were reviewed by the group and briefly described.

Girls in this part of the program included: Peggy Dean White, Dorothy Philyaw, Inez Whaley, Peggy Waller, Jo Ann Smith, Peggy Thomas, Mary Toler, Martha Pruitt, Sonja Cox, Kay Koonce, Gretchen Davis, Edna Earle Philyaw, Betty Lou Wooten and Iris Skinner.

Special talent numbers were rendered by Sandra Jones, Connie Coombs, Joyce Moore, Patsy Miller, Patricia Miller, Joyce Jenkins, Judy Taylor, Barbara Bender, Linda Jenkins, Glenda Smith, and Dottie Kennedy.

The entire group sang "Getting To Know You", "Christmas Carols" and "Blest Be The Tie."

Pianists were: Wanda Ballard and Mary West.

Immediately following the Banquet activities, Open House was held in order that the Mothers and Guests could visit the rooms and see some of the work of the students.

Exhibits in the homemaking department centered around the girls work in sewing, cooking, housing, color, art, safety, home projects and gifts. Also on display were many good ideas for decorating one's home for the holidays.

Betty Lou Wooten, Peggy Waller, and Mary Lou Whaley were in charge of registration for the group. Individual name badges were made by the homemakers and given to each person present.

The Banquet and Open house was under the supervision of Mrs. Alma T. Phillips. Hostesses were Kay Koonce and Brenda Capps.

MARINES LANDED

A squad of Camp Lejeune Marines landed in jail Sunday night after a brief tussle at Carlyle's drive-in in North Kinston. John F. Carr, William A. Kaolin, George Fills Jr., William D. Leishman, John Tierney were charged with disorderly conduct, malicious damage and simple assault. Later two of them indicted Wheeler Carlyle for assaulting them. He said their abusive use of profanity and refusal to leave his place caused the encounter.

May the best gift of all - the spirit of peace and good will ... be yours always.
