

MAYSVILLE NEWS

By Mrs. Nolan Jones

Methodist Women WSCS Met Tuesday

The Womens Society of Christian Service met Tuesday in the social room of the Methodist Church.

Following the call to worship the program "What is the Word?" was presented by leaders Mrs. Joan Thompson and Mrs. Sarah Nell Thompson, assisted by Mrs. Claudia Mattocks, Mrs. A. H. McDaniel and Miss Jackie Jones. Two hymns were sung and the program was concluded with prayer.

Following the business portion which was conducted by Mrs. Guy Jones, they adjourned with a unison reading of the purpose.

Study Course Held In Maysville Church

The Maysville Methodist Church conducted its church wide study course Sunday evening, February 12. Rev. D. R. Shinkle of Havelock spoke to a large crowd on Dr. Jackson's book "Stumbling Block", which deals with alcoholism.

The course began at 7 and lasted two hours. There was a break during which the W.S.C.S. served doughnuts and coffee in the social room of the church.

There were several visitors present from the Belgrade Methodist church.

Junior Girls Have Valentine Party

The Junior Girls Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met Sunday afternoon at the church with their leader Miss Rosa Collins for a Valentine party.

The girls played several games and later were served refreshments of punch, sandwiches, cookies, candy and potato chips.

Those present were Wanda Evans, Doris Evans, Beulah Collins, Sudie Batchelor, Barbara Foy, Carolyn Foy, Barbara Budd, Shirley Collins, Libby King, Cathy Jones and Miss Collins.

Seventh Graders are Given Valentine Party at Carr Home

The seventh grade of Maysville Elementary school enjoyed a valentine party Friday night at the home of one of its students, Tracy Carr. Approximately 25 persons were present, including several visitors from Jacksonville.

The group played several games and enjoyed dancing. A dancing contest was held with Brenda Eubanks and Deloria Young winning first prize, Tracey Carr and Larry Britt second prize and Kay Bynum and Freddie Costello third prize.

Refreshments consisted of pink chiffon cake, soft drinks, candy and ice cream.

Those present other than students and visitors from Jacksonville were Mrs. Mary Carr, Mrs. Laura Chapman, their teacher, her daughter and Johnny Carr.

Mrs. Katherine Holden Hostess for Bridge

Mrs. Katherine Holden entertained the Bridge Club at her home Wednesday evening with two tables playing.

Refreshments of chocolate ice box cake topped with whipped cream and coffee were served before the three progressions to Mesdames Fannie Foscoe, Frances Hay, Claudia Mattocks, Evelyn Pelletier, Sarah Pelletier, Fannie Pruitt and Joan Tedder.

Mrs. Pruitt scored high, Mrs. Sarah Pelletier second high and Mrs. Foscoe received the bingo prize. Nuts and Cokes were served during play.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gerock are visiting in Scotland Neck with her sister Mrs. Turner Whitehead.

Robert Curtin and his son, Robert Jr., attended the Boy Scouts' Father-and-Son banquet at Camp Lejeune last Wednesday night.

Visiting Mrs. N. N. Mattocks over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. George Mewborn and sons from Snow Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bell were here Sunday from New Bern visiting Mr. and Mrs. Andy Britt.

Cage Mattocks of Wilmington spent the weekend in Maysville visiting relatives.

Mrs. O. L. Hardee of Andrews S. C. is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Joe Thompson, and family.

Visitors in the Robert Curtin home during the weekend were Miss Mary McCoy and Miss Mary Clark of Camp Lejeune.

George Flowers of Greensboro was a Sunday dinner guest of the Guy Eubanks family.

Visiting from New Bern Sunday with the Albert Braceys were L. N. Lathan and the Al Aversa family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thompson and children were away during the weekend, visiting relatives in Andrews, S. C.

Mrs. W. E. Raiford left Monday for Virginia Beach, where she will visit Mr. and Mrs. Nido Hamilton.

Pvt. Randolph Mills was home from Ft. Jackson, S. C. for a weekend visit with his parents. Also home from Ft. Jackson for a visit with his wife, Betty, was Pvt. John Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Collins were here over the weekend from Greensboro, visiting Mrs. Cleve Parsons who returned with them for a visit.

Mrs. S. E. Brown is at home following a stay with her sister in New Bern while she underwent treatment for pneumonia. She is recovering nicely but is still confined to her home.

Mrs. A. H. McDaniel was in New Bern Sunday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Mildred Thompson, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mills and son Jerry were in New Bern Sunday visiting the W. O. Ernul family.

Mrs. C. C. Morgan visited Mrs. Gladys Henderson at Jacksonville last week; also Mrs. Leone Rowe in Onslow county.

Mrs. Eugene Williams and baby were Monday visitors of the A. W.

Gerocks.

Wilfred Britt of New Bern was the Saturday night guest of the Andy Britts and a Sunday visitor of the Robert Britts.

Born last week at the Onslow County hospital were a son to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eubanks and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Heath.

Enjoy a Strong Banking Connection ...

SAVE at FIRST-CITIZENS

3% guaranteed interest on savings

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

THE HASSLER CURING SYSTEM

For Bulk Curing Flue-Cured Tobacco

PROVED SUCCESSFUL BY FARM TESTS

- It cures tobacco
- Greatly reduces amount of labor required
- Controls temperature, humidity and air movement
- Reduces fuel costs
- Fire resistant—concrete and steel
- No damaged tobacco on ground around system
- Eliminates costly sticks and nuisance of storing them
- Cures in any kind of weather
- Easily financed
- Pays for itself in time, labor and materials saved

Farm tested and proven successful by Stone Brothers, Robeson County, N.C., with 8 cures in 1960. Stone Brothers sold 9,922 pounds, bulk-cured, for $65.40 per cwt. compared to market average that day of $63.00 per cwt.

Rear view showing flue from combustion chamber—only warm air circulates through tobacco from air handling unit.

FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION, CALL OR SEE ...

GEORGE WATSON & ASSOCIATES, Inc.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C.
Phones: 44-5-4482 OR 44-2-6260

AUTHORIZED DEALER

Copyright 1961
Manufactured by Alkon Industries, Inc.
Sales Office: P.O. Box 18712, Raleigh, N.C.

LEWIS 66

$2.00 pint

$3.15 4/5 quart

80 proof

LEWIS 66 RESERVE Blended Whisky

J.T.S. BROWN & SON COMPANY
Lynchburg, Kentucky

Blended Whisky
80% straight whiskey
& pure old
70% grain neutral spirits