Woman Clubbers have Program on 4-H Clubs

The Trenton Woman's Club met Tuesday night in the clubhouse with Mrs. Nelson Conway of the Community Affairs Department in charge of the program. Her line of departmental work being on youth, she presented the program on "What 4-H Means to Me" with three 4-H Club members as guest speakers.

Wilson Lowery, a high school junior, spoke on "Health and Safety," Carol Haddock, a senior, spoke on "Electricity and Beautification", and Polly McDaniel, a freshman, spoke on "Recreation".

Mrs. Charlie Davis, adult 4-H leader from Pollockville, told the group what being an adult leader had meant to her and had helped her understand teen-agers better.

After the program, Mrs. Harold Hargett presided over the business meeting, and hostesses were Mrs. Henry Swiggett and Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Mrs. Harold Hargett Hostess to Her Club

The Little Bridge Club met Friday night in the home of Mrs. Harold Hargett Jr., with three members present and several guests. Members were Mrs. Fred Foscue, Mrs. J. R. Franck and Mrs. Rogers Pollock. Mrs. Franck won low score for the evening.

Guests were Mrs. Bill Parker, who won high, Mrs. Harold Hargett, Mrs. Leslie Parker, Mrs. Millis Wright and Mrs. Elizabeth Venters.

Snacks were served during play, and following three progressions, Mrs. Hargett served Cherry pie with ice cream and hot amber tea.

Mrs. Kenneth Jarman Given Surprise Party On 56th Anniversary

Mrs. Kenneth Jarman was honored Sunday on her 56 birthday with a picnic dinner given by her husband and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eula Mercer.

The bar-be-cue picnic dinner was held at the Legion Hut in Trenton and 115 guests were present.

Even with all the people who knew about the party, Mrs. Jarman was really surprised.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McDuffy, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McDuffy and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Barry Jones and family all of Kinston, Clifford, Leroy, Jr., Bobby and Ronald Eubanks of Windsor, and Swindell Bryant of Richmond, Va.

ECC Announces Honors Students

Three lists of students at East Carolina who have received official recognition from the College because of their excellent records in academic work during the winter quarter of the present school year have been announced.

Included on the lists are the names of 742 students, of whom 207 are men and 535 are women. North Carolinians number 689 and students from outside the state 53.

Sixty-nine men and women who made the grade "A" on each subject taken, the highest mark given at the college, received top honors for scholastic achievement in an "All A's" List. The Dean's List and the Honor Roll include the names of students whose work was considered worthy of special mention and commendation.

The Dean's List, including 208 students, is composed of undergraduates who made at least two and one-half quality points per hour on all work taken, with no grade below "C". These students did superior academic work.

The Honor Roll, with 465 undergraduates who made at least 1 sented, is composed of undergraduates who made at least 2 quality points per credit hours on all work taken, with no grade below "C". The work completed by these students was well above average.
