Three More Candidates For Commissioner; Noon Friday Filing Deadline

Jones County Election Board Chairman W. F. Hill reports the addition of three more names to the list of those who would like to have one of the five jobs on the county board of commissioners.

The filing this week of Joe Turner, Carl Brown and Lindsey V. Maness makes a total of 10 candidates who had paid their filing fee through 10 a. m. Thursday.

Hill also reports that opposition has popped up for the five incumbent members of the Jones County Board of Education with the filing this week of Trenton Oil Dealer Rogers Pollock for one of those five jobs.

The slate of commissioner candidates now includes four incumbents: Chairman Nelson Banks, Horace Lee Haddock, Eugene Simpson and Harold Mallard; three former commissioners: John W. Creagh, James Barbee and Ralph Scott and the three newcomers who have filed in the past week. Turner was a candidate two years ago also.

The incumbent board of education includes Chairman Charlton West, J. J. Conway, C. J. Banks, W. E. Phillips and J. C. Wooten.

NERVY MAN

Odell Jones of Pink Hill was indicted last week for giving his wife an egg — a goose egg — in the middle of the forehead.

Two Jones Teachers Complete Radiation Detection Courses

Two Jones County teachers, Nellie S. Wells and William Clay Adams, have completed courses sponsored by the Office of Civilian Defense in the detection of radioactive materials.

County Civil Defense Director R. C. O'Bryan asked the board of county commissioners to allocate funds for the special courses in November of last year and the courses were completed on March 15th of this year.

The teachers had to commute to Williamston to take the courses, but they are now qualified to instruct other persons in the use of detection equipment, as well as in the handling of radioactive test materials.

Suit Filed Collect $1149.05 Account

A suit has been filed in the past week in Jones County Superior Court by F. R. Pollock against Joe Killingsworth, seeking to collect a back account in the amount of $1149.05.

The complaint says that Killingsworth has owed Pollock this amount since October 6, 1960 and the court is asked to order the account paid plus six per cent interest from that date.

Musical Program For Trenton PTA

The Trenton School Parent Teachers Association met last Wednesday in the school auditorium with Mrs. Ray Harrison presiding.

Rev. Douglas Ponder gave the devotional, followed by Billy Harrison singing "Fairest Lord Jesus," accompanied by Sonja Ray Harrison on the piano.

Brenda Hill and Betty Becton played selections on the piano and a group known as "The Combos", a part of the Jones County School Band, also played several pieces as part of the program.

Mrs. Darris Koonce read the minutes and Mrs. Clifton Pollock read the treasury report.

The piano purchased for the school has not been paid for yet, so a collection was taken at the meeting and the president announced that a collection will also be made at the last meeting in May to try to finish out the payments.

Fred Pippin's 8th grade won room count.

Two Arrests

Jones County Sheriff Brown Yates reports two arrests in the county in the past week; Thelms Foy of Trenton is accused of violating the liquor law and assault with a deadly weapon and Bruno Ludwig Dettman of Hialeah, Florida was charged with speeding 80 miles per hour.

Jones Central Beta Clubbers Attend Convention in Raleigh

Last Friday 10 members and two sponsors from the Jones Central High School Beta Club attended the State Beta Club Convention in Raleigh. The convention officially opened with a talent show in Memorial Auditorium. The talent contest consisted of dance acts, singing, and skits. Prizes were awarded to the clubs on the grounds of originality and performance. After the talent program the candidates for state offices were presented.

Saturday morning a breakfast and conference were held for the sponsors, directors, and school officials at the Sir Walter Hotel. At 9:30 Saturday morning the second general session was held at Memorial Auditorium. It was opened with a brief song session and invocation.

State Director R. B. Hellams recognized all new clubs, "Banner Clubs", and alumni. The candidates for offices introduced themselves. Then the assembly divided into conference groups.
