Memorial Baptists Hold Picnic Sunday Honoring Chaplain

Immediately following church services Sunday morning, members of the Memorial Baptist church and several friends gathered at the community building for a picnic lunch, honoring Chaplain and Mrs. Joseph Davis of Camp Lejeune. Since the departure of their former pastor, Dr. A. E. Thompson, Chaplain Davis has served part of the time as their substitute pastor, both at morning and evening services.

The churches new pastor is expected soon and the members chose this occasion to express their deep appreciation to the Davis's for their service.

B. L. Mattocks Given Birthday Dinner at Home of Son, Robert

B. L. Mattocks, who celebrated his 81st birthday Sunday, was honored at a dinner given him by his son and daughter-in-law, Robert and Claudia Mattocks at their home. Present other than Mr. Mattocks were Mrs. Mattocks, Stevie and Elizabeth Phillips and William Earl Mattocks and son, Greg, of Belgrade.

Methodist Men's Club See Movie on Tuesday

The Tuesday night meeting of the Methodists Mens Club was opened with a hymn, followed with prayer by Tom Foscue. The nine men present then enjoyed a chicken salad supper served by C. W. Lancaster, Roger Mallard and Leonard Thompson.

William Earl Mattocks presided over the business portion of the meeting at which routine business was discussed and the men agreed to sponsor MYF president, Kathy Meadows, at the Annual Youth Conference being held at Duke in August.

For their program, a film, "Dedicated Men", was shown.
