Cannon-Riggs Vows Spoken In Lee's Methodist Chapel

In a candlelight ceremony which took place Friday night, September 28, at 7 o'clock in Lee's Methodist Chapel near Pollocksville with the Rev. L. A. Green, pastor, officiating, Miss Della Sue Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Riggs, of Pollocksville became the bride of Mr. J. B. Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cannon, of Hubert.

The church altar was arranged with baskets of white gladioli and six-branched candelabra holding white cathedral candles. The altar rail was entwined with ivy.

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Julia Whitty, pianist for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street-length sheath dress of white brocade with matching jacket with bracelet length sleeves and a collar embroidered in seed pearls. She wore a matching wisp hat with a slight veil and carried a Bible topped with a nosegay of white carnations.

Miss Carol Arthur was the bride's maid of honor and Mrs. Dennis Riggs was bridesmaid. They wore similar dresses of pink batiste fashioned with deep scooped necklines and accented with wide cummerbunds. They wore matching head dresses and carried nosegays of white carnations.

William Cannon, brother of the bridegroom, of Hubert was the best man and ushers were Dennis Riggs and Milton Arthur, both of Pollocksville.

The bride's mother wore a green and blue printed silk dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The bride-day.

James Spence and Harper Gray were in Morehead Sunday.
